INTERNATIONAL CRITICAL COMMENTARY on the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Under the present editorship of The Rev. FRANCIS BROWN, D. D., L. Litt., L. L. D., and the Rev. ALFRED PLUMMER, M. A., D. D., planned and for years edited by the late Prof. C. A. BRIGGS, D.D., in America, and Prof. S. R. DRIVER, D.D., and Rev. ALFRED PLUMMER, D.D. in Great Britain.

Historical and Archaeological questions, as well as questions of Biblical Theology, are included in the plan of the Commentary, but not Practical or Homiletical Exegesis. LUTHERAN COMMENTARY, THE.

By Scholars of the Lutheran Church in the United States, under the editorial charge of HENRY EYSTER JACOBS, D.D., LL.D. Is being published after extensive correspondence and consultation between the general editor and Lutheran scholars throughout the country. It comprises twelve volumes of about 400 pages each, and incorporates the text of the revised version. The work fills an intermediate position between scientific and popular exposition. It does not enter into the discussion of critical questions, but seeks to present results. It is adapted to the wants of pastors, and is especially valuable to intelligent laymen and Sunday-school teachers. 12mo, Each, 2.50

THE ADVENTURES OF
MAYA THE BEE

By* WALDEMAR BONSELS

Illustrated with head and tail piece in black and white for each chapter and with four full-page colored illustrations by

HOMER BOSS

Maya was not a bee like other bees. She was different. From the very hour of her birth she made up her mind that she was not going to live as other bees, was not going to work and make honey, day in and day out, nothing but work. She would go out and see the world for herself and have adventures and experiences.

And she did; and she had adventures in plenty, more, sometimes, than she liked. She met many different kinds of insects, learned many things about the way they lived and about the way they thought and felt. And she learned a little about human beings, also. She had such an interesting life that in reading about it in this book we can hardly catch our breath at times. We laugh and we cry; we are happy and we are sad. For Maya is not an ordinary bee. She is a great character and we begin to love her. And what happens to her is very important. 8vo. $2.50

THE FRUIT OF THE TREE

By HAMILTON FYFE

Author of "The Widow's Cruse"

In this novel Mr. Fyfe contrasts two types of women: the woman who seeks to avoid the burden of motherhood, and the woman who finds her chief happiness in children.

Mr. Fyfe is an attentive social observer and he sees that the growing distaste of the more intellectual kind of women for motherhood is bound to have disturbing consequences. Just as in the past men sought in "gay" society distraction from aggravated domesticity, so now they are liable to crave for domestic joys as a relief from childless homes.

In THE FRUIT OF THE TREE Mr. Fyfe describes such a case without taking sides and with an ever-present humor. He does not plead or preach; he is content to set forth problems of personality which have a vivid application in the every-day lives of us all. $2.00

THE TROUBLE WITH WOMEN

By LUCIAN CARY

This story by the brilliant American writer suggests, with fine mild irony, that the trouble with women is perhaps really the trouble with men. If a beautiful and lovable girl, as nice all around as a human being can be, has the good or bad fortune to fall in love with an artist, who has an extreme case of "artistic temperament"—you can see what she has let herself in for. Will she keep his love, will she keep him straight?

This is the theme of the very human and very absorbing story Mr. Cary tells. The subject concerns us all, for though not all men are artists, the problem which Sophie Adams has to contend with is one which many women have to contend with, in one form or another, in a greater or lesser degree. $1.75

WHAT BECAME OF MR. DESMOND

By C. NINA BOYLE

A story of a disappearance, all the more perplexing and terrifying because of the every-day circumstances in which it takes place. The dramatic development of the mystery provides ample material for a first rate story full of thrills and surprises.

London Times: "Such an ingenious and terrible tale of villainy that Miss Boyle may congratulate herself on a real success in sensationalism."

London Bookman: "It is impossible to resist the interest and the 'pull' of the book. There is not one dull page or one dull sentence. Full of amazing sidelights, of clear-cut characters, of ever-increasing interest." $1.75

LEAVES ON THE WATER

SKETCHES AND TALES OF THE ORIENT

By STANLEY KIMMEL

A volume of Oriental sketches and tales, unique in pictorial vividness and observation, and reflecting a world of magic and fascination. $1.50

The negro novel crowned with the Prix Goncourt

BATOUALA

By RENÉ MARAN

Sells 8,000 a day in France. A sensational success in every language into which it has been translated.

New York Times: "This story of primitive love and hate is developed amid striking scenes of native life in central Africa. There is a description of a great native dance which reveals René Maran as having a remarkable fund of original and first-hand knowledge of the negroes of whom he writes. He draws pictures of the African wilderness, creates an atmosphere of vast spaces and silence and mystery which recall W. H. Hudson at his best. And always, even when his Africans are dancing and revelling at their maddest, he succeeds in suggesting the unhappiness that besets them, the sword of Damocles which the white man holds suspended over their heads."

Living Age: "A tale so strange, so powerful, so unusual, that there is small difficulty in seeing why the ten members of the Académie Goncourt awarded it their prize. There is no gainsaying the curious vividness with which the minute details of this descripiton let in the white reader's gaze upon the queer sluggish workings of the savage brain."

New York Herald: "René Maran is a poet, and his book is first of all a poem. Back of all the characters, around and from within them, one hears the voice of the mysterious African jungle, whose dawns, evenings, nights, moon-glorified, have deeply penetrated the soul of the author."

Baltimore Evening Sun: "The force, the tremendous force and power of its simplicity, hammers upon one's mind like the beat of the tomtom which sounds throughout the text, and one realizes where its genius lies."

Chicago Defender: "The book is of high literary merit and has been called one of the most noteworthy achievements of the century."

Columbus Enquirer-Sun: "Maran has pictured the savages with a glare and a boldness that is equatorial. In short he has pictured them exactly as they should be pictured according to all canons of literary art and truth." $1.75

ESCAPE

By JEFFERY E. JEFFERY

Author of "Side Issues"

ESCAPE is the story of a woman who tries persistently to free herself from the narrowness of a middle class existence. To escape from her family she marries, but finds that she has only lengthened her tether. Widowed when she is still under thirty, she sets herself to the acquisition of money as the first means to liberty of spirit. But neither the affluence which comes to her nor the passionate love affair which accompanies it, satisfy her. Disillusioned, she refashions her ideals under a nature wiser but not less eager than her own, and finds—Escape. $2.00

JEREMIAH

A dramatic Poem in nine Scenes

By STEFAN ZWEIG

Translated by EDEN AND CEDAR PAUL

The theme of this drama is the fall of Jerusalem, which presents striking similarities to events through which our own modern world has just passed. Through the prophet, Jeremiah, the leading character in the play, Zweig depicts not only the material but the spiritual struggles of today.

Romain Rolland, in a long article on this play, says: "Zweig sought his inspiration in the Bible. One figure especially attracted him; that of Jeremiah, the wronged phophet of the peace that blossoms on ruins. JEREMIAH is the most beautiful example I know of, of the sublime melancholy that sees beyond the bloody drama of today the eternal tragedy of humanity. But there are defeats more fertile than victories, and sorrows more resplendent than joys. Zweig's poem presents them with grandeur." $2.00

AFTER THE PEACE

By H. N. BRAILSFORD

The author attempts to survey the condition of Europe as the war, the blockade and the Peace Treaties have left it. He discusses the various ways in which a sick continent may attempt to find an escape from the doom that threatens it—by social revolution, by militarist reaction, by the voluntary revision of the Treaties. He emphasizes the clash of interest between country and town, which is the chief barrier against revolution, and studies the new conditions, especially the coal shortage, which make it unlikely that Europe can ever again feed its former population in conditions compatible with a civilized standard of life. $1.50

INDUSTRIAL REVIVAL IN SOVIET RUSSIA

By A. A. HELLER

This book tells for the first time what is happening in Russia under the new economic policy adopted in the spring of 1921. It describes the slow economic revival that is taking place there as the result of the partial return to private enterprise and trade. Russia, according to the author, is making a strenuous effort to rebuild the shattered economic structure and has set itself earnestly and seriously to productive work.

Mr. Heller, a well-known business man who speaks the Russian language and has an intimate knowledge of Russia of long standing, went there at the very time the new system was introduced. He spent several months travelling in both Russia and Siberia and had unusual opportunities for direct study of the new methods; so that his book is the first-hand record of a man trained and equipped to observe. $1.50

THE NEW PSYCHOLOGY AND THE TEACHER

By H. CRICHTON MILLER

This book has been recommended by the British Social Hygiene Board

A leading American psychologist and educator says: "Attractively written by a reliable man. It is a reasonable account of some elementary facts which ordinarily are treated under the head of psychoanalysis. No book of exactly this sort has appeared in this country."

Professor Joseph Jastrow of the University of Wisconsin says: "I have read the book by Miller and find it very interesting. It is a book which teachers and parents will find at once serviceable and stimulating." $1.50

Two Important New Books by

D. H. LAWRENCE

Martyn Johnson, formerly editor of The Dial, in Los Angeles Sunday Times:
"D. H. LAWRENCE IS THE MOST SIGNIFICANT FIGURE IN ENGLISH LETTERS TODAY, PROBABLY ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT IN THE ENTIRE RANGE OF LITERATURE."

FANTASIA OF THE UNCONSCIOUS

This remarkable book is a statement of Lawrence's philosophy of life. It elaborates further his theory of the Unconscious as set forth in a previous volume, "Psychoanalysis and the Unconscious." But it is far more than that. It is a discussion in essay form of the human problems of today, the problems dealt with as personal experiences in Mr. Lawrence's fiction: "The Rainbow," "Women in Love," "Aaron's Rod" and "The Lost Girl." Mr. Lawrence has some very original views on the question of education, the bringing up of children, marriage, love and other vital issues of human relationship. He sees the crying need of readjustment in all these relations and he has stated the issues and his solutions of them with the fearlessness of a prophet and with a magical beauty of language.

FANTASIA OF THE UNCONSCIOUS is an important work, vital to every man and woman. The best of Mr. Lawrence's extraordinary genius has gone into the making of this book. It will arouse heated discussion. People will agree violently and disagree violently. But no thinking person can remain indifferent to its challenge. In our opinion it is the most important work that has appeared since the publication of Nietzsche's "Zarathustra." $2.00

STUDIES IN CLASSIC AMERICAN LITERATURE

Contains long essays on Walt Whitman and Hawthorne and studies of Herman Melville, Benjamin Franklin, Richard Henry Dana and other American writers. The essay on Whitman which was published in part in the London Nation and Athenaeum was reprinted widely in the English and American press and stirred up much debate. It need hardly be said that what Lawrence has to say on American literature is unique. The book is indispensable to the student of American literature, and the general reader will find it stimulating and absorbing.

It is interesting to note that Lawrence rediscovered Herman Melville long before the boom in South Sea travel books made Melville a writer of contemporary popularity. $3.50

POETRY

POEMS

By JOHN COWPER POWYS

The twenty poems of SAMPHIRE have in them a haunting and terrible beauty. It's as though a naked spirit were suspended over the yawning abysses of the universe. They are poems of the earth and of ultimate space, of the pollen-dust of buttercups and the gold-dust of Orion. $1.00

BOYS AND GIRLS

POEMS

By GENEVIEVE TAGGARD

Genevieve Taggard is regarded by some critics as ranking with Edna St. Vincent Millay among the greatest of American poets. Her poems, which have appeared in The Nation, The Bookman, The Literary Review, Poetry, The Measure, etc., have aroused extreme interest. This volume is a selection of the poems which the author considers to be the best in her work of ten years. $1.25

IN MEMORIAM AND OTHER POEMS

By MARTIN FEINSTEIN

A volume of poems by the winner of The Nation's Poetry Prize—a lyrical singer of many moods and thoughts. Poems of passion, of the soul's immolation, of Zion and of man's aspirations to higher things.

Of IN MEMORIAM, which won The Nation Poetry Prize, The Chicago Daily News says: "One of the great poems of the war." $1.25

WHEN A SOUL SINGS

POEMS

By P. M. RASKIN

Author of "Songs of a Jew," "Songs of a Wanderer," "Songs and Dreams," etc.

Mr. Raskin is the most popular of Jewish poets. He is as much read among Jews as Longfellow used to be read by our grandparents. His poems reveal the soul of the ancient race, scarred by cruel centuries but steeled by deep faith. They are distinguished for their simplicity and charm.

It was Mr. Israel Zangwill who first recognized Mr. Raskin's great poetic talent.

Laurie Magnus in the Jewish Guardian says that he "bares his head to a poet on the horizon. His poems have strength, music, fancy and imagination." $1.50

IMPORTANT RECENT PUBLICATIONS

AARON'S ROD

By D. H. LAWRENCE

Love and Marriage in our day as Lawrence sees it.

Professor Henry Seidel Canby in the Literary Review: "Signs are not wanting, indeed they are abundant, that the most prepotent novelist of our day in the eyes of the younger writers of advanced fiction is D. H. Lawrence. I find I must go back as far as Hawthorne for a satisfying parallel to D. H. Lawrence."

New York Times: "A very unusual novel. A book for men and women who are mentally as well as physically grown up. Extraordinarily interesting." $2.00

THE LOST GIRL

By D. H. LAWRENCE

A gripping story, centering around a strikingly original heroine and her escape from spinsterhood.

Winner of the James Tait Black Memorial Prize for the best novel of the year; awarded by the eminent English authority, H. J. C. Grierson, Professor of Rhetoric and English Literature in the University of Edinburgh. $2.00

The Story of a Heartless Woman

INTRUSION

By BEATRICE KEAN SEYMOUR

Chicago Journal of Commerce: "Once in a long while somebody writes a book which grips you so completely by its truth and power that you are completely absorbed in its problem. If there be a test for greatness in art or music or letters, the degree of that absorption is that test. INTRUSION is such an accomplishment."

F. P. A. in New York World: "Full of delight. Hereby earnestly and ardently recommended." $2.00

INVISIBLE TIDES

By BEATRICE KEAN SEYMOUR

Reader's Guide, New York Evening Post: "I would put INVISIBLE TIDES at the top of the list as the one book of the year not to be missed. To me it gave much more satisfaction and delight than 'If Winter Comes,' much as I enjoyed the Hutchinson book. The pure beauty of the style, for one thing, I loved." $2.00

LOVE—AND DIANA

By CONCORDIA MERREL

Author of "Julia Takes Her Chance"

New York Times: "Inevitably destined to popularity. Gives the reader the sensation of watching a stirring motion-picture show. Furnishes good entertainment." $1.75

Dr. Mary K. Isham in New York Times: "Every word is of interest."

John V. A. Weaver in Brooklyn Daily Eagle: "Should be placed in the hands of every educator in the country, and parents of girls would find it a most useful aid." $5.00

ROMAIN ROLLAND: The Man and His Work

By STEFAN ZWEIG

Author of "Emile Verhaeren"

Translated by EDEN AND CEDAR PAUL

New York Tribune: "This biography of Rolland must immediately take its place among the italicized books of the year."

R. M. Lovett in New Republic: "Mr. Zweig's biography is no ordinary one. The narrative is kept on the high plane of Rolland's intellectual achievement."

With portraits and illustrations $4.00

OLD EUROPE'S SUICIDE

By BRIGADIER-GENERAL C. B. THOMSON

A brief, graphic history of Europe during the period of 1912-1919 by one who was himself an important actor in these events.

The Nation: "Should become a classic. In the new era where world affairs are all of moment to all of us in all parts, we need wide knowledge, and we need it as it is here given, the facts in their authentic settings, focused in their right environment."

New York Herald: "An admirably clear and brief account of the whole Balkan situation. The best we know in one volume for the general reader."

San Francisco Bulletin: "This book is absolutely essential to a complete understanding of the causes that led to the struggle that brought about the downfall of the central empires." $2.00

BOOKS
STUDY OF LANGUAGES
ARE OUR SPECIALTY

Free communications between all the nations of the earth having been restored, it is important that the value of social and business intercourse, when conducted in the native tongue of each country, be again recognized.

Time and effort spent in the study of a foreign language are sure to bring valuable returns, and as our stock of books in this line is unsurpassed, we invite inspection or correspondence regarding same.

Due to present conditions, prices are subject, more or less, to frequent fluctuations.

As it would be imprudent to issue a printed price list of imported publications just now, we have prepared a list of such grammars, conversation books, dictionaries etc. in foreign languages as are likely to be in demand; copies will be mailed gratis on application, and quotations (in conformity with the then prevailing rate of exchange) given for such items as may be indicated by our correspondents. Our long-established reputation for fair dealing makes it unnecessary to dwell upon the fact that our prices will meet sound competition everywhere.

From among the multitude of languages, represented by books in our stock, we would call attention especially to the following, our assortment of which is particularly comprehensive and up to date, the various tongues also appearing in all possible combinations:

Czechoslovakian, Danish, Hollandish-Dutch, English, French, German, Hungarian, Italian, Portuguese, Roumanian, Russian, Spanish, Swedish.

Of the more important of these languages we always carry in stock technological and other scientific dictionaries containing the most modern terms employed in the arts and sciences.

We also beg to call attention to our large supply of text books in Universal Languages, such as Esperanto and Ido, to which we are continually adding new publications.

ANNOUNCEMENT
E. STEIGER & CO.

ESTABLISHED 1864 — 49 MURRAY STREET NEW YORK — P. O. BOX 905 CITY HALL STATION

As a result of our foresight in having acquired considerable stocks of paper etc. before the excessive rise in prices began, we have been able to maintain the original pre-war list prices on the language text-books of our own publication, and also the trade discount of 33⅓ % on same.

In consequence of the unsettled conditions in foreign exchange, and the lack of uniformity with which the various foreign publishers make their prices, it is not, at present, possible to quote fixed prices on all publications to be imported, but purchasers may rest assured that any order with which they may favor us will be filled as expeditiously and at as low a figure as circumstances permit.

We shall be glad to mail available prospectuses and catalogs of imported books and periodicals, and to give quotations on same.

Having continually enlarged our department for kindergarten material and kindred school supplies, we are particularly well equipped to fill large or small orders promptly.

Estimates on School Board Contracts cheerfully furnished to the Trade.

We also invite attention to the large assortment of educational literature which we always carry in stock.

Curiosities of Matrimony

By David Ainsworth

with illustrations by William J. Moll

MOST of us, whether we be married or single, are apt to regard quite seriously the Hymeneal tether—as no doubt we should. There are, nevertheless, many amusing circumstances centered round and about the marriage institution; wits and versifiers of all times have indulged in sly digs at its expense. Surely no one will grudge us a quiet smile.

Here is a compilation of curious and interesting facts concerning matrimony, together with a collection of verses, written apropos of weddings which have occurred during the last hundred years.

To some of us Curiosities of Matrimony will doubtless prove instructive: few of us will fail to be both interested and amused.

The Fountain of Youth (La Flor de la Vida)

By Seráfin and Joaquín Álvarez-Quintero

Translated by Samuel N. Baker

A POETIC drama in three acts. There are but two characters in the cast, a romantic peasant lad and the daughter of a neighboring lord. Through youth, manhood, and old age we follow the thread of a hopeless passion, but one so pure and unselfish that it brings to its object the only real happiness of a lifetime, and this happiness is what the Quintero Brothers call La Flor de la Vida.

"Unusually heartening and virile verse."

Mirage

A One-Act Play

By George M. P. Baird

MIRAGE is a fragment-study of race contact and conflict, Caucasian and Amarind. It is, in a very literal sense, an American play, with its setting in the Hopi country of Arizona. Written for, and originally produced in, an art theatre, it is peculiarly adapted to the needs of amateur players and may be set very effectively and economically. (Two men, three women.)

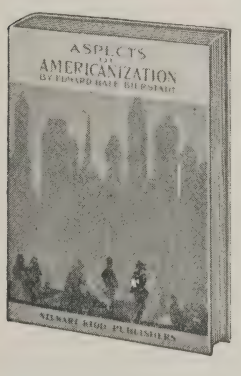
Aspects of Americanization

By Edward Hale Bierstadt

with a foreword by Amélie Rives



AMERICANIZATION is the most important factor of internal development confronting the United States today. This book defines Americanization. It tells what it is, what it ought to be—what it means to the immigrant, and what it means to the nation. Among the topics dealt with are Educating the Immigrant, Immigrant Efforts Toward Americanization, The Immigrant and Industry, two chapters on Pseudo-Americanization, two more on the Foreign-Language Press in America, a discussion of the new immigration legislation, voluminous Appendices, a Bibliography, and an Index.

Aspects of Americanization differs from any other work on the subject in certain well-defined particulars. First: it is based on an actual working knowledge of the conditions and people with which it deals. Second: it regards the immigrant primarily as a Human Being, not as a Problem, an Industrial Unit, a Political Menace, or merely a Foreigner. Third: it not only presents the author's conclusions, but it also gives the facts on which the conclusions are based.

Mr. Bierstadt has been associate director of the Foreign Language Information Service, an organization of which Commissioner General of Immigration Husband has said, "I regard it as one of the very strongest, and most sanely conceived and conducted Americanizing agencies in existence." He is therefore in a position to know what he is talking about. His experience with the problem has been concrete, rather than theoretical. What he says is based on fact, not on empty prejudice. In a word, this is a practical book on the subject, but it is not dull. It is controversial, at once strongly idealistic and acid-like in the cutting quality of its criticism.

Sounding Brass

A Tragedy in One Act

By Edward Hale Bierstadt

THE play is a moment snatched from life which rises in one swift sweep of action to a terrific climax. The scene is a prison; the characters: the warden, his wife, his son, and a keeper. Against the menacing background of the dark-cell the tragedy is enacted. (Three men, one woman)

Birds of America

Editor-in-Chief: T. Gilbert Pearson, Executive Secretary of the National Association of Audubon Societies.
Consulting Editor: John Burroughs, Naturalist and Author.
Contributing Editors: Herbert K. Job, Head of Applied Ornithology of the Audubon Societies.
Edward H. Forbush, State Ornithologist of Massachussetts.
William L. Finley, State Biologist of Oregon.
L. Nelson Nichols, Member of the Linnæan Society.

Meadow Lark

TODAY the American Ornithologist's Union lists 1,200 species of birds. Of this number some are either very rare or seldom visit our shores; but of the total, the new Birds of America describes and pictures a thousand. This is the first time the subject has been dealt with fully in any popular work; and the treatment is not fragmentary—on the contrary it is complete and systematic, with many interesting stories of bird life surrounding the hundreds of pictures.

In addition to more than 600 field pictures and black-and-white drawings, the value of this work is heightened by the inclusion of over 300 species in color from original drawings in the New York State Museum. This is recognized as the most important series of bird studies ever made. There is also a series of egg plates, showing one hundred eggs in actual size and colors.

The publication of Birds of America marks an epoch in nature study in America. It places in the hands of every lover of outdoor life, for the first time, a careful and systematic key to nature's great secrets. In the preparation of this material the foremost naturalists, sportsmen, and scientists have united.

Masterpieces of Modern Spanish Drama

Edited, with a preface, by Barrett H. Clark

THE Great Galeoto, a tragedy, by José Echegaray, translated by Eleanor Bontecou (presented to the American public — by Wm. Faversham, under the title "The World and his Wife")| "an instance of Echegaray's melodramatic and essentially Spanish genius."

Daniela, a tragic drama, by Angel Guimerá, translated by John Garrett Underhill. "Daniela comes to us with all the force of a new sensation, by virtue of the profound and tragic poetry of its theme. It is of the great order."—The Dial.

The Duchess of San Quentin, a comedy, by Benito Pérez-Galdós, translated by Philip M. Hayden. "Galdós has done a rare bit of character portrayal."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

These plays follow the best traditions of Spain's Golden Age and represent three varied aspects of her dramatic genius—Echegaray, Galdós and Guiméra, the Catalonian Nationalist. "Daniela" and "The Duchess of San Quentin" have never before been translated. Mr. Clark, who is well-known to all lovers and students of the drama, gives in his prefaces a concise and illuminating survey of the drama in Spain, both old and new. Each play is preceded by a biographical sketch and a complete chronological list of the dramatist's works.

"All the plays are essentially racial and as such will deeply interest the student of European drama."—Argonaut.

Bacon's Dial in Shakespeare

By Natalie Rice Clark

THE final and authentic Bacon-Shakespeare cipher has at last been found. For many years scholars have known that there was such a cipher, and there is an extensive literature on the subject advancing various theories which have one by one been proven inadequate. It has remained for Mrs. Clark to discover the actual cipher, and that this cipher provides a literary framework for the plays.

The Compass-Clock-Dial cipher is one that everybody can try out and prove for himself. It is a plain, sensible cipher, practical enough for use today. It runs through every one of the Shakespeare plays. The ancient gibe that all Bacon ciphers were "mutually destructive" does not fit here, for the Dial Cipher actually strengthens the force of many of the Bacon acrostics, or "signatures," already found in Shakespeare. Through this cipher the obscure passages in the plays are cleared up, and the running comment of the dramatist on his characters is indicated by the way he places them on the Dial. Mrs. Clark gives a complete study of Macbeth, accompanied by the cipher count.

Scholars have endorsed the Dial Cipher, but it does not require expert knowledge to understand and to apply it. It is an actual, provable cipher, one so plain that any reader can use it without even the aid of a library large enough to boast a facsimile copy of the First Folio of 1623 or a copy of Porter and Clarke's Folio Edition.

Goat Alley

A Play in Three Acts

By Ernest Howard Culbertson

with an introduction by Ludwig Lewisohn

"IN writing his tragedy of negro life in Washington, Mr. Culbertson had no sociological intention. He thought that he had come upon an action that has the quality of tragic inevitableness. He saw that the negro cannot yet hope, like the white man, to transcend common standards. He must first reach them. Hence Lucy Belle's struggle for her own integrity is not yet the struggle of Nora or Magda—the struggle to be true to herself; it is the struggle to remain true to the man of her choice. Loneliness, poverty, ignorance, terror—drive her from disaster to disaster, from one unwilling infidelity to another. But she never wavers in her soul.

"Neither the subject nor the circumstances are new. But novelty is no mark of fine literature. The motives, the people, the place, the color of life—these are new. Every triangle play is a 'Medea'. There are subjects that are classical because they are native to the character and circumstances of mankind. Such is the subject of Goat Alley. No American play has had a finer or truer moment than that at the end of the second act when Lucy Belle, her lodger lost, her money stolen, her child crying with hunger, consents quietly, yet in such despair, to rent her vacant room to the worthless, ingratiating barber. Hauptmann would not have disdained that quiet moment of rich, tragic implications; Galsworthy would have approved it."

George Jean Nathan says: "'Goat Alley' is probably the most acute transcription of the negro yet made visible in our native dramatic literature." And H. L. Mencken writes to Mr. Culbertson: "You have come closer to the negro, as I know him here in Baltimore, than any other man who has tackled him."

Trail Craft

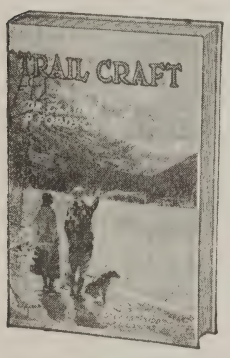
By Dr. Claude P. Fordyce, with an introduction by Stewart Edward White



PRACTICAL information on equipment for motor tours and mountaineering, the choice of a tent, building a cabin, first-aid methods, desert travel, outdoor cuisine, etc. If one is to enjoy an outing to the fullest extent, the Red Gods inexorably rule that its craftsmanship be understood. Trail Craft tells you how to meet the exigencies which might mar the success of a wilderness tour; it smooths the way when you go out to "rough it."

Dr. Fordyce, an enthusiastic outdoorsman and an experienced wilderness traveler, is on the staff of Outdoor Life and is a member of the Sierra Club, the Colorado Mountain Club, etc. His acquaintance with the National Parks and the remote wilderness regions of the United States and Alaska gives authenticity to his words.

The Drama of Transition: Native and Exotic Playcraft

By Isaac Goldberg, author of "Studies in Spanish-American Literature", editor and translator of "Six Plays of the Yiddish Theatre," etc.

THERE are periods in art of which one may say: This is Romantic; this is Realistic. Equally there are the transitional stages that mark the progress from one period to another. Mr. Goldberg takes the present era as one of transition. The drama of today is on its way to something new, but it has not yet arrived at its destination. The Drama of Transition depicts the background of this change; it shows whence it proceeds, and the direction in which it is moving; who the authors are, what they are doing, and how successful they appear to be.

The book opens with a chapter on the Backgrounds of Latter-Day Dramatic Criticism. In this are taken up the various theories propounded by the more recent critics both here and abroad. The purpose is to show that at bottom criticism is art, and therefore personal,—a matter of cultivated taste; that the modern tendency is to look upon each critic for the personal contribution he makes rather than for any definite, inflexible standard. There is a lively, running commentary on the influence of Freud on the critics and dramatists of today in all the countries concerned.

Following this are eight chapters discussing in turn the present-day dramatic tendencies of Spain, Italy, South America, France, Germany, the Yiddish writers, and the United States. This last is based primarily on a thorough study of Eugene O'Neill, with passing considerations of other dramatists.

Dr. Goldberg is qualified to speak with authority, and his keen sense of human as well as artistic values makes his work as roundly interesting as it is definitive.

Helen's Babies

By John Habberton

A Memorial Edition

Illustrated by William J. Moll

WHEN Helen's Babies was published forty-six years ago, the humor of the book made it popular in England, France, and Germany, as well as in America. Until the language of children ceases to be, the words of Toddie and Budge will provoke laughter—and smiles. John Habberton, whom they made famous, died in February, 1921, and this memorial edition, charmingly illustrated by William J. Moll, is offered by Stewart Kidd as a tribute to Mr. Habberton's love of laughter, life, and the incomparable pranks of childhood.

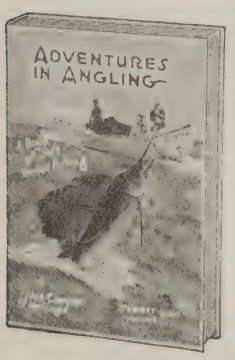
Adventures in Angling

A Book of Salt Water Fishing

By Van Campen Heilner, author of "The Call of the Surf."



FEW angling writers in the world today have had as much experience in their line as Van Campen Heilner, whose name is familiar to readers of Field and Stream, National Geographic, Outers' Recreation, Wide World, etc.

Adventures in Angling deals with his many and thrilling experiences with big game fishes in the Atlantic and the Pacific, not the least thrilling being the account of his capture of the world's record ocean sunfish.

Mr. Heilner has the writing knack of making his readers feel that they have been with him through his various adventures. From barracuda on black-bass tackle to the giant horse-mackerel or tuna on the heaviest outfits made, the author runs the exciting gamut of angling emotions. And one needn't be a fisher, either, to get the thrill. The book is full of hard facts—things that happened, and happened mostly with a bang—"in gulfs enchanted where the siren sings."

Some chapter headings:

With Grains and Harpoons. In Turquoise Seas. The Coast of Romance. Barracuda on Black-Bass Tackle. The Tarpon of Channel Two. Where Coral Reefs Lie Bare. An Ocean Goliath. With the Salmon of Monterey.

Illustrated in color from paintings by Frank Stick, and in black-and-white from photographs by the Author.

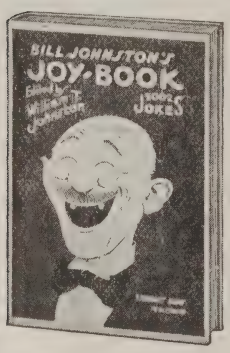
Bill Johnston's Joy-Book

Edited by William T. Johnston
Illustrated by Claude Shafer



2002 JOKES collected from every corner of the earth, classified in a topical, cross-referenced index, with each of the forty-two sections illustrated by Claude Shafer.

From the Author's Foreword:

"In the body of the book each story is numbered, and in the index it is cited by number under every subject to which it applies. Some jokes cover more than one point, you know. There is, for instance, the story of Jonah and the Whale, not, for various reasons, digested in this collection. It has been our purpose and delight to leave no one, no thing, no vice, no virtue, no state, no anything that adorns these tales unindexed."

Scrambled Eggs

By Lawton Mackall and Francis R. Bellamy

AN amusing satire on Blue Laws and Human Nature, with Clarence the Rooster and Eustace the Drake as the protagonists of the drama, the scene of which is laid is an idyllic barnyard. The costumes are conceived after the manner of unusual toy Easter Ducks and Chickens. Much artistic ingenuity can be utilized in the presentation. (2m. 3w.: with opportunity for some 10 or 12 others as minor denizens of the barnyard.)

Five One-Act Plays

By Lawrence Langner

with an introduction by St. John Ervine

THESE one-act comedies have unusual variety and originality, and have been produced successfully by the Washington Square Players, the Provincetown Players, and other theatre groups throughout the country. Mr. Langner possesses that gift which is rarest in American playwrights—a keen sense of satire and a sure touch. His comedies, which read as well as they act, show a humorous understanding of human relations and institutions. Mr. Langner was one of the founders of the Washington Square Players and the Theatre Guild, and is a pioneer in the new theatre movement in America.

Third Book of Short Plays

By Mary Mac Millan

author of "Short Plays" and "More Short Plays."

IN this new volume there is a play called "When Two's Not Company." Does the author mean to hint that her two former books of plays are not companions or that the three volumes do not make a crowd—or what? The only answer is to read the book. It contains seven plays which represent about as many different things as the Seven Muses do. There is realism square and unadorned as a moving-van, the fantastic element graced by an ear-ring of poetry on the one side and irony on the other, pure-farce-comedy, satire, the somber bell of tragedy ringing once, dancing, and the most modern of music—a victrola. The scenes are all simple and can be staged by amateurs. The number of characters range from two to thirteen. Each plot has its necessary obstacle or tangle. And the dialogue is clever.

The plays are:

A Weak-End — An Apocryphal Episode
In Heaven — The Storm
Standing Moving — When Two's Not Company

The Sun Chaser

A Play in Four Acts.

By Jeannette Marks

WHAT [the Sun Chaser seeks is what every one wants: Happiness, that is so hard to get and even harder to keep. The Sun Chaser tries to find it in something never achieved, never-ended, heard in the running clip-clop of his defeated lame step and his cry "Going—going—going!" The mother seeks happiness in her pitiful attempt to keep the Sun Chaser out of the lockup and in her love for the child. And the child finds happiness in a final supreme sacrifice.

Thursday Evening

A One-Act Play

By Christopher Morley

A COMEDY of domestic life, laid in the kitchen of a suburban home the night the cook goes out; replete with austere philosophy and uncanny realism, nor devoid of innocent mirth. In this play, for the first time in the world's literature, the Ice-Box Pan and the Garbage Pail become great intellectual symbols. (One man, three women).

"A delightful little domestic sketch, with a good situation and very human dialogue."—The Billboard.

Songs for Fishermen

Collected by Joseph Morris and St. Clair Adams

compilers of "It Can Be Done."

AN anthology of the best fishing poetry, covering the period from Shakespeare to Robert Bridges in England and from Whittier to Edgar A. Guest in America.

The aim has been to represent all phases of fishing, and the range of the poems is so varied that the book will appeal to both the most expert caster of a fly and the occasional fisherman on the creek bank with his worm-can and pole.

The attendant pleasures of fishing have been included—the enjoyment of nature, friendships of the stream and club, great thoughts and lessons drawn from the sport, those poems of the delightful exaggerations and mendacity peculiar to fishermen, the humorous experiences that occur to all followers of the "gentle art."

While many famous literary names are represented among the 130 authors and 220 poems, no piece has been included because of its author, but because it is a real "fish" poem.

A delightful book to take along as a companion on a fishing trip and an ideal volume for one's table to revive all the joys and experiences of fishing.

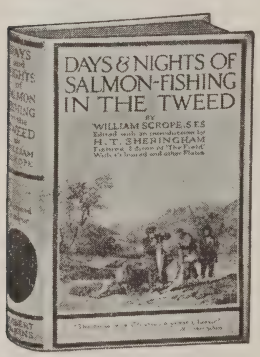
Days and Nights of Salmon Fishing in the Tweed

By William Scrope

Edited, with an introduction, by H. T. Sheringham



"THE book has much of that spacious freedom which one finds in the great Elizabethans. The Scropes were men who counted in the development of the country and our author wrote with the fine gesture of a great gentleman. He was evidently a good scholar, his reading was extensive, and, best of all, he had a delightful sense of humour. Then, of course, there is the technical interest of the book, which is very great. The way of a salmon with the fly in 1921 is just what it was in 1842.

The first edition of 1843 is a thing of steadily increasing price, the second edition of 1854 is quite rare, and the only modern edition is over 20 years old and is now, I believe, out of print."—From the Editor's Introduction.

Mr. Sheringham has brought Scrope's masterpiece up-to-date in a way that should render it the final edition of the great classic.

Red Bud Women

Four Dramatic Episodes

By Mark O'Dea

with a foreword by Pierre Loving

The Song of Solomon
Shivaree

Miss Myrtle says "Yes."
Not in the Lessons

IN four effective one-act plays, ranging from tragedy to comedy and each an American vignette, the innermost lives of the men and women of Red Bud, a countryside village, are revealed. O'Dea, a brilliant analyst of the feminine mind, brings to judgment some of the fundamental social problems of our time. His philosophy of feminism is as ancient as Hellenic individualism, but where Plato preached the divine masculinity of life, we find in Red Bud a new vision of our Ideal Republic.

"Here is stark truth," says W. L. George, noted English novelist. "O'Dea is an honest man, unafraid, daring. He reveals the truth about those women who are exploited, sold, starved of emotion. I recommend Red Bud Women because of its deep sincerity, its dramatic power, its fervid intensity."

And Pierre Loving: "For a number of years Mark O'Dea lived amongst the people he etches with such an unsparing hand. He watched closely their daily collision with the obdurate forces hemming them about—as a sympathetic familiar, not as a cold, aloof, cynical analyst of the half-sweet, half-bitter overtones of their existence. If he were a feminist special pleader—which he is not—it would have been a relatively simple matter to have painted the men villainously black. He is, or he chooses to be, the artist rather than the propagandist."

The plays have been produced by Little Theatres, and they read as well as they act, so vivid are the characterizations.

The Fly-Fisher's Entomology

By Alfred Ronalds

Edited by H. T. Sheringham

A NEW edition with colored representations of natural and artificial insects, and a few observations and instructions on trout and grayling fishing.

"The Author of this little book entreats that it may be considered and judged as the labour, or rather the amusement, of an amateur, whose chief object has been to facilitate to the tyro in the Art, the making and choice of artificial flies, on a plan of elucidation derived from personal experience."

From the Preface to the 1836 Edition

It was not till Alfred Ronalds produced The Fly-Fisher's Entomology in 1836 that anglers had something that could be accepted as a standard work. He performed his task so well that his book is a standard work still, though eighty-four years have elapsed since it came out.

Seckatary Hawkins in Cuba

By Robert F. Schulkers

HOW he accompanied his friend Link, the "Skinny Guy," into a strange land to obtain possession of an inheritance, and found himself in a nest of mystery; of the ghostly happenings in the villa; of the great treasure of the Cazanova pirates, and how he searched for it—these are some of the features that give zest to the tale. The Boston Globe calls it a "rattling, fine boy's story."

This is the first volume of a series of stories that have already appeared in The Cincinnati Enquirer, and it has been published because of the many demands of the young readers for a book about Seckatary Hawkins.

Some Press Comments:

"A tale of adventure and danger that will appeal to the heart of youth."—Springfield Republican.

"One of the best adventure and mystery stories invented. It will keep all girls and boys in a shiver of expectation."—Spokesman's Review.

The Book of the Pike

By O. W. Smith,
author of "Casting Tackle and Methods".

IN The Book of the Pike Mr. Smith presents the wealth of information accumulated from lake, stream, and laboratory during the last thirty or forty years. During the time he has been Angling Editor of Outdoor Life, he says that more questions have been asked regarding the identity of members of the Pike family than of any other group of fishes, unless it be the western Trouts. In this book he clearly explains how the angler can know whether a given specimen is a pickerel, a great pike, or a lordly muskellunge. Besides, there is much natural history and scientific information told in a popular manner.

There are also many stories and anecdotes of pickerel, pike, and lunge fishing, which the cursory reader, as well as the angler, will find interesting.

TWO SERIES OF PAPER PLAYS

THE Stewart Kidd Modern Plays and The Stewart Kidd Little Theatre Plays are designed to meet two definite demands. The first is that of the many Little Theatres for plays of actual dramatic distinction and of artistic importance. The second is that of the general public for plays of true literary value. The general intent of both series is identical.

The price of the plays has been made unusually low in the effort to bring them within the reach of everyone. Each play is issued in a form that is entirely practical for purposes of production. At the same time the books are attractive and artistic in appearance. They are by no means merely acting versions.

The titles of the plays will be found on the next page.

Books published since the catalogue of 1921 are indicated by an asterisk (*).
Books recommended by the American Library Association are indicated by a dagger (†).

Out of print books are listed only in the index by titles, pages 39-49.

Most volumes are listed under the names of their authors. Wherever a book belongs to a series which is better known than the authors of particular volumes, such as "Masterpieces in Color," "Painters' Series," etc., it is listed only under the series title.

In several instances books in well-known series, formerly listed under their authors, are now listed under the series. In such cases the authors' names appear properly indexed, but under them reference is made to the series.

Anonymous books are listed under their titles.

An index by titles is given at the end of the catalogue.

"The Living Jesus"

The Words of Jesus of Nazareth

Uttered Through

The Medium, The Reverend Frederick A. Wiggin, D.D.

Pastor of Unity Church, Boston, Massachusetts

12mo, cloth .....net, $2.00

Bound in Full Paste Grain Leather, Boxed.....net, $4.00

The twenty-eight messages contained in this book came at intervals from February 11, to June 1, 1921, while Dr. Wiggin, who is a psychic of thirty years experience and of high standing, was in a state of unconscious trance. The influence who took possession of his personality was a very remarkable and spiritual being, who said in his first message that he left the earth life between two and three thousand years ago, and who announced himself, at the beginning of his nineteenth message, as Jesus of Nazareth.

These messages contain very valuable historical, religious and spiritual truth, and bear upon all the principal phases of human life. No more startling and momentous psychic document has appeared in modern times.

It is a real guide to the interpretation of what actually takes place on the stage, rather than a retelling in story form of each opera plot.

Boxed . . . . . net, 4.50

Regular edition, cloth . . . . . net, $1.50

Regular edition, full leather . . . . . Boxed, net, 3.00

Selections from the best poems of Edgar A. Guest, Robert W. Service, Walt Mason, Sam Walter Foss, Rudyard Kipling, Edmund Vance Cooke, Ella Wheeler Wilcox and Everard Jack Appleton, James Whitcomb Riley, Frank L. Stanton and others.

There is more optimism and inspiration crammed between the lids of this book than we have seen in print anywhere. If it is true that "a friend doubles our joys and halves our sorrows," this book should become a real friend. It is so intensely human that continued reading of it will make its pages more than paper and ink—its courage and faith and cheer will become a living part of the reader, and the world will be better, our friends happier, and we stronger because of our belief that what should be done can be done. Public speakers will find this volume well-nigh indispensable.—From The Lookout, January 1, 1922.

Handbook of the Operas

New and Enlarged Edition

By EDITH B. ORDWAY

12mo, cloth. Illustrated Wrapper, net,* $1.50

Bound in Full Paste Grain Leather,
Boxed, net, 3.00

Among the fifty-six grand operas, the stories of which are included in this book, are the most important of the old favorites, and the most notable successes of recent seasons. As they are the operas chosen by popular interest, the collection has a wide range in character, varying from lyric comedy to epic tragedy.

With each opera is given interesting and carefully verified data. The name of the composer and the date of the first production serve to place the opera in the line of artistic succession. The full list of the characters, together with their singing parts, is also included.

"The author has covered at least in some degree, about everything that the story writer needs to know, and much of his information is precisely that which the young author has hitherto looked for in vain."—Boston Evening Transcript.

"I am simply amazed at the variety and usefulness of the contents."
—S. PARKES CADMAN, D.D.

"A monumental work, and a carefully organized treasury of mental, moral and religious value. I know of nothing like it, or approximating to it in practical helpfulness as a thesaurus of pregnant phrases."—CHAS. H. PARKHURST, D.D.

One Thousand Literary Questions and Answers

By MARY E. KRAMER

12mo. Cloth . . . . . net, $1.50

A thousand of the questions that come from time to time into the mind of almost every reader of general literature are asked and answered in this book. The questions are stated as briefly as they arise in conversation,—now a detached name of some character or book or author, again a line of poetry or the first words of some saying that has clung to memory quite unassociated with a name. The questions touch all periods and phases of English and American literature up to the present day, and are such as may reasonably be asked of any intelligent reader. Dramatic circumstances are noted, many obscure yet valuable facts are brought to light, illuminating connections made, and matters of salient interest pointed out.

"A worth while volume for the instruction of the general reader, full of data relating to literature of many sorts and answering some of those puzzling inquiries with which the 'Want to know, you know' puzzle newspaper people."—Detroit Free Press.

"We can do no better than say what the publishers say about the work and to add that they do not misstate or overstate any feature of the book."—Journal of Education.

REFERENCE BOOKS

How to Obtain Citizenship

By NATHANIEL C. FOWLER, JR.

12mo, cloth . . . . . net, $1.25
12mo, paper . . . . . net, 60 cents

The only work giving plain, simple, concise, full, and easy-to-understand directions to be followed by the alien or foreigner who would become a citizen of the United States.

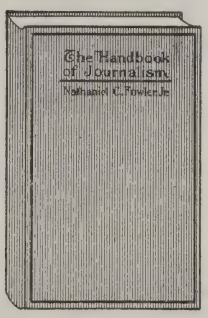
The questions which may be asked the foreigner by the court or examiner are presented, with their answers.

The book contains an exact copy of the Constitution of the United States and the Declaration of Independence, with notes and explanations.

Besides telling the reader all he needs to know, and what he must do to become a citizen, the book gives a very large amount of information about the United States, its customs, and its people; how to invest money without risk; and what to do to be more patriotic and successful.

"The work would be an excellent text-book in our public schools."

—The Fourth Estate.



Handbook of Journalism

By NATHANIEL C. FOWLER, JR.

Each 12mo, bound in cloth . . net, $1.25

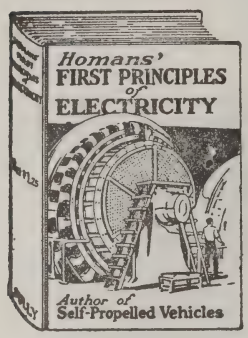
This is probably the first work of its class entirely devoid of theory and generality. The author is an experienced ex-journalist, who has experienced every kind of newspaper work from the setting of type to the editing of a daily paper. What he has to say comes first-hand to the reader, and as the result of actual experience with conditions. The book will be of untold value, not only to the newspaper men, but to those who would enter the profession, either as country editors, or as beginners on great metropolitan dailies.

"Altogether it is a capital book for the purpose."—Boston Evening Transcript.

"This is a sensible book of practical information of great value not only to newspaper men, but to those who have ambition toward newspaper work."—The Watchword.

Practical Arts and Sciences

Homans' First Principles of Electricity



By J. E. HOMANS

12mo, cloth, fully illustrated . net, $1.50

As either a primer of electrical science, or as a handbook of fundamental principles that would be appreciated by an advanced worker, this little book is in a class by itself. The author starts with the assumption that the reader, although, perhaps, unlearned in the science of electrics, really desires the information that one would expect in a book with such a title. He undertakes, therefore, to treat of the principles of the science, from the ground up, passing in review all the matters necessary to constitute a fundamental knowledge of all forms of electric current, with singularly lucid explanations of obscure points.

Homans' Automobile Handbook

By J. E. HOMANS

12mo, cloth, fully illustrated . net, $1.50

This book is a wonderfully complete summary, within the limits of a volume of moderate size, of the principles of construction and operation of a gasolene motor car and engine. Like other books produced by its author, it is distinctly readable, and characterized by lucid and thorough explanations of matters unfamiliar to the average reader. Few books that have appeared of late are better calculated to inform, also to interest, while imparting information.

"A handy book for any owner who looks after his own machine."—New York World.

"No finer book to study on wet days in the garage, or to have on hand in case of difficulties."—Montreal Weekly Herald and Star.

INSPIRATIONAL BOOKS

Getting a Start

First Aids to Success

By NATHANIEL C. FOWLER, JR.

12mo. Cloth . . . . . net, $1.25

This book contains about a hundred articles, which appeared in the leading newspapers of the United States and Canada, and were read by millions. They attracted world-wide attention, and were acknowledged to be the best inspirational "short talks" ever written.

"There is a good deal of Benjamin Franklin's epigrammatic snappiness and common "horse sense" about Mr. Fowler's aid to "intelligence."—Boston Transcript.

"If you know of a young man who does not have confidence in his own abilities give him this little book and ask him to read it. The advice it contains should change his life for the better and make a real man of him."—The Portland Oregonian.

Beginning Right

How to Succeed

By NATHANIEL C. FOWLER, JR.

12mo. Cloth . . . . . net, $1.25

The articles comprised in this publication are in no sense duplicates of those contained in "Getting a Start." They are written with all of Mr. Fowler's usual keen insight and common sense, and they cannot fail to be of assistance, not only to young people just entering business life, but also to experienced travelers along the same road.

"Like all good advice all that is needed here is the disposition to take and use these suggestions."—The Detroit Free Press.

Grasping Opportunity

By NATHANIEL C. FOWLER, JR.

12mo. Cloth. A companion volume to "Getting a Start" and "Beginning Right." . . . . . net, $1.25

"Grasping Opportunity" is the Laboratory of Business in book form. It contains a large number of dialogues, covering every phase of clerical work, and each character acts his part as is done in the counting-room and office.

The book shows what business actually is, what the employee should do to better his condition, to gain promotion, to receive an increase of salary. It is a composite affair, presenting the best ideas not only of the author but of eminent business men and their associates. It not only tells one how to achieve success in business, but warns the reader of the many pitfalls which are likely to work to his detriment.

It is a volume for anyone, man or woman, boy or girl, earning from a few dollars a week to several thousand a year.

"An exceedingly practical volume of helpful hints which should be of great aid to the man who wants to succeed in his business."—Boston Globe.

"It is a book which each young man and woman should read and endeavor to follow."

The Art of Speech Making

By NATHANIEL C. FOWLER, JR.

12mo. Cloth. . . . . Net, $1.25

"An excellent book for the man who doesn't know how to make a speech and wants to know."—North Carolina Education.

Signs, Omens and Superstitions

By Astra Cielo, author of "Fortune and Dreams."

12mo. Cloth. . . . . net, $1.25

There are few persons no matter how rational or evel-headed who are given to superstition in some form, With some there is a deep-seated belief that evil will result from a ninfraction of a rule. With others an amused idea that if a ceremony does no good it can do no harm, and so to be on the safe side they carry out Some Mummery.

It is the object of this book to review the subject of superstition without prejudice or condemnation, but to present the data and explain their origin wherever possible, leaving it to the reader to reject such beliefs as seem absurd and irreconcilable with modern culture.

Fortunes and Dreams

By Astra Cielo

The various methods and tables are offered to the reader at their own value, without any special claim for their accuracy or efficacy. Each inquirer must determine for himself in how far he may trust the oracle that he has consulted. Some of the material is new and is not to be found in modern books of this nature. Most of the tables have been gleaned from very old authorities.

JUVENILES

Joe Strong Series

By VANCE BARNUM

Seven Titles—Illustrated and bound in decorated cloth, each book with a beautiful colored wrapper . . . . . Each, 65c.

Vance Barnum is a real treasure when it comes to telling about how magicians do their weird tricks, how the circus acrobats pull off their various stunts, how the "fishman" remains under water so long, how the mid-air performers loop the loop and how the slack-wire fellow keeps from tumbling. He has been through it all and he writes freely for the boys from his vast experience. They are real stories bound to hold their audiences breathless.

The hero of this series is a remarkable young fellow. He has a superb form physically, a keen eye and limitless nerve. He became a magician, an acrobat, a high diver and boy fish, looped the loop in the air on a motorcycle and made a sensation by his "dive for life" from one flying machine to another. He was a marvellous shot with pistol and rifle, hitting bull's eye while swinging on a trapeze and while on a tight rope.

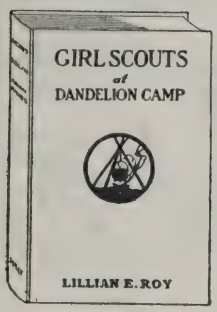
NEW JUVENILES



Girl Scouts Mountain Series

By Lillian E. Roy

Three volumes. Four Illustrations in each volume, with beautiful colored jacket.
12mo, cloth . . . . . Each, $1.00 net
3 vols. Boxed . . . . . net, $3.00

1—THE GIRL SCOUTS OF DANDELION CAMP

The many activities which center around the making and the enjoying of a mountain camp, spiced with the fun of a lively troop of Girl Scouts, make this first book of the series a necessary introduction to the complete enjoyment of the others. The charm of living in the woods, the changes in housekeeping methods, the fun of building rustic furniture, of learning woodcraft of all sorts, of adventuring into the unknown, and of having the unknown adventure into your midst—added to the more ordinary problems of commanding resources to provide for all the fun and frolic, combine to make a busy and an exciting summer.

2—THE GIRL SCOUTS IN THE ADIRONDACKS

Having the range of one mountain only made the Girl Scout Troop mountain-hungry, so they managed to get to the Adirondacks for their next summer's vacation. Going by auto through the varied country they met their usual quota of adventures. New scenery, more and bigger and steeper mountains, new problems of camping, association with a neighboring camp of Boy Scouts, and a long canoe trip with them through the Fulton Chain, all in the setting of the marvelous Adirondacks, bring to the girls enlargement of horizon, new development, and new joys. Nor does their mettle go untested, for a hotel fire endangers life and makes demands upon their knowledge of emergency tactics.

3—THE GIRL SCOUTS IN THE ROCKIES

Again the mountains call loudly to Dandelion Troop, and the Girl Scouts content themselves with nothing less than the Rockies. On horseback from Denver through Estes Park as far as the Continental Divide, climbing peaks, riding wild trails, canoeing through canyons, shooting rapids, encountering a landslide, a summer blizzard, a sand storm, wild animals, and forest fires, the girls pack the days full with unforgetable experiences. Against the background of Nature's grandeur and antiquity the delights packed into a single summer stand out vividly.

Four Titles—Four illustrations in each volume, bound in decorated cloth, each book with a beautiful colored wrapper.

Each . . . . . net, $1.00

In Annie Roe Carr we have found a young woman of wide experience with girls—in the schoolroom, in camp and while travelling. She knows girls of to-day thoroughly—and knows that in their literature they demand almost as much action as do the boy. And she knows humor—good, clean fun and plenty of it.

1. NAN SHERWOOD AT PINE CAMP, or The Old Lumberman's Secret.

By the will of her parents, Nan is left to the care of an uncle and aunt who run a camp in the heart of Michigan. She is a city girl who finds the camp life exceedingly strange to her. Her uncle is in difficulties because of other lumbermen and Nan saves her relative by gaining possession of a rival lumberman's secret.

2. NAN SHERWOOD AT LAKEVIEW HALL, or The Mystery of the Haunted Boathouse.

To finish her education, Nan is sent to a boarding school and there makes both friends and enemies. The boathouse connected with the school is said to be haunted and Nan and some of her friends resolve to solve the mystery, which leads to many complications and much excitement.

3. NAN SHERWOOD'S WINTER HOLIDAYS, or Rescuing the Runaway.

During the winter holidays Nan is invited by a chum to visit her home in Chicago. While in the city Nan falls in with two girls who have run away from home to try to get work as motion-picture actresses. They are in sore distress when Nan comes to their aid. The story is filled with good times and not a little excitement.

4. NAN SHERWOOD AT ROSE RANCH, or The Old Mexican's Treasure

At Rose Ranch Nan had a variety of experiences. Several of the cowboys become her friends and they take Nan and her chums out on the ranges. There is a thrilling round-up of cattle and the particulars are given of a tornado that proved exceedingly destructive. A girl's tale with not a dull line in it.

5. NAN SHERWOOD AT PALM BEACH, or Strange Adventures Among the Orange Groves

In this tale the scene is shifted from boarding school to the fascinating Florida east coast. At the school the vivacious Nan, steering her bobsled, got mixed up in a most peculiar accident. She meets an old lady who has a remarkable story to tell. Later, Nan, with her chum, travels to Florida, and amid the orange groves solves an unusual mystery. A story that gives a faithful picture of doings in this well-known corner of Uncle Sam's playground. Full of the things any healthy girl will be glad to read about.

Sheila of Big Wreck Cove

By JAMES A. COOPER

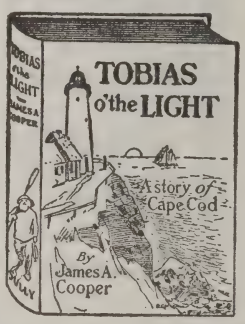
12mo, cloth, Illustrated and with colored wrapper. net, $1.75

Can one girl impersonate another and carry out the deception successfully? This is the all-important question raised in Mr. Cooper's new Cape Cod story—a romance, so sweeping in its broad pictures of life on the Cape, so thrilling in its scenes of storm and stress, so broadly humorous one minute and so highly romantic the next, that it is sure to mark an epoch in this branch of our national literature. To know Sheila is to love her—love her in spite of that awful deception which was practiced when she knew not which way to turn or what to do. Through it all runs the salt of the never-resting sea, of strong hearts, and of a love that no catastrophe could quench.

This story shows Mr. Cooper at his best, and that, as his many admirers know, is saying a great deal.

Tobias o' the Light

By JAMES A. COOPER



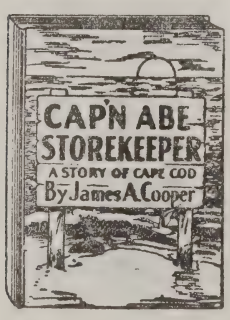
12mo, cloth wrapper in color, and four illustrations . . . . . net, $1.75

Another of Mr. Cooper's matchless Cape Cod stories, filled with the tang of the salt air and the booming of the surf along the shore.

Old Cap'n Tobias, the keeper of the lighthouse, is a truly lovable character and his efforts at match-making bring forth first smiles, then chuckles and finally, wild bursts of laughter. "I did it fer the best," he says, but the best was something awful. The Captain has a good foil in Heppy, the elder sister who keeps house for him.

The young folks—who were in love with each other and didn't know it—are well drawn, and so is the rascal who came close to wrecking their happiness.

This story, we feel certain, will make Mr. Cooper more popular than ever, with an ever-increasing host of readers.



Cap'n Abe, Storekeeper

A STORY OF CAPE COD

By JAMES A. COOPER

12mo, cloth, illustrated, and with colored wrapper . . . . . net, $1.75

In this volume, humor and pathos are well mixed. Many of the doings along the Cape shore are taken from life. Tender love scenes are not lacking; and there is high excitement when a great storm wrecks a vessel off the coast and it looks as if some of the loved ones might be drowned.

"These are genuine 'Cape Folks.' They have the thoughts and speak the language of Cape Yankees."—The Boston Herald.

The story is well worth while."—New York Evening Post.

"Plenty of action and a spice of humor."—San Francisco Chronicle.

"A healthy well-sustained novel of Cape Cod."—The Oregonian.

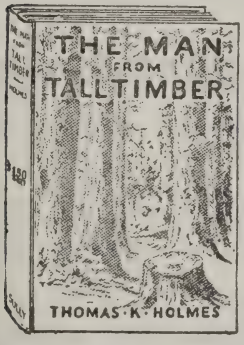
The Heart of Canyon Pass

By THOMAS K. HOLMES, author of "The Man from Tall Timber"

Illustrated, colored jacket, 12mo, cloth, net, $1.75

Another strong tale of the great Northwest. To the mining regions comes the Reverend Willett Ford Hunt, discouraged by his efforts in the East and resolved to do something that would really be worth while in a locality that had never known a church or a preacher. He is accompanied by his sister, whose past is a mystery to him. At Canyon Pass he falls in with a wealthy mine owner who was once a college chum, and also comes face to face with his fate in the person of beautiful Nell Blossom, a honky-tonk singer. How the parson struggled to uncover the real heart of Canyon Pass and raise the community from the depth, how he struggled, too, with the beautiful but headstrong Nell, and how Betty, his sister with a past, came out of that furnace of fire, all go to make up a Western story of absorbing interest.



The Man From Tall Timber

By THOMAS K. HOLMES

12mo, illustrated, Wrapper in colors, net, $1.75

Out in the great northwest under the tall trees there develops a plot which makes the heart throb. The sturdy big-hearted American and his bright-eyed Gypsy, "the girl from nowhere," a shrewd young millionaire from the city and his former sweetheart furnish enough excitement for the most blasé reader.

The smell of the big timber—the charm of the silent places and the refreshing cheerfulness and warm-heartedness of the people of the big woods lingers long after the story is read.

The Girl He Left Behind

By HELEN BEECHER LONG, author of "Janice Day," etc.

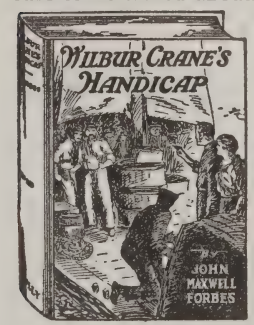
The Girl had been his private secretary, and she soon discovered that matters were not going right. Then came a fight to preserve His interests and her own reputation. In the meanwhile the other girl had gone to the front too, with the Red Cross. A volume full of thrills of battle and big business—with a strong element of love.

Some Honeymoon!

By CHARLES EVERETT HALL

12mo, cloth, illustrated and with colored wrapper . . . . . net, $1.50

Does a man know whom he marries when he takes him a wife? John Ryder thought he did, but his wife was of another opinion. And the woman—did she or did she not know her own name? A story full of ludicrous situations and absurd predicaments, painful perhaps for the participants, but inexpressibly funny to the onlooker from the moment Ryder first meets The Woman until the end, when mystery and misunderstanding are swept away. But before this end one is privileged to meet the inimitable "house detective," and the mirth-provoking "Mrs. Judson" and to watch Ryder, the Wall Street magnate, corner the lamp and oil-stove market. A farce-comedy of high order and one sure to be talked about.



Wilbur Crane's Handicap

By JOHN MAXWELL FORBES, author of "Doubloons and The Girl."

12mo, cloth, illustrations and colored wrapper by A. O. Scott . . net, $1.50

Can an innocent man, handicapped by a prison sentence, make good? In trying to answer this question for himself, Wilbur Crane stows himself on a ship on which is sailing "the sweetest girl in the world," a girl at once courageous and well poised. And this is well, for there comes a time of excitement and stress when both man and woman need all their courage. There is not only shipwreck and days spent under the hot sun on a floating raft, but the story reaches back to earlier intrigues that almost cause the loss of another ship. A tale of love, peril and adventure graphically, breathlessly told, which carries the reader along as on a tidal wave.

Phoebe

By ELEANOR GATES, author of "The Poor Little Rich Girl," "Apron Strings," etc.

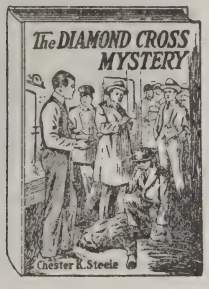
Full Colored Wrapper by Clarence Underwood

In this her latest novel, Eleanor Gates presents a heroine who is such an altogether charmingly quaint and wistful young person that readers of all ages will take "Phoebe" to their hearts. The story shows how startlingly the new generation differs from the older in some important and unexpected ways; it shows, too, certain fresh problems that touch upon the youth of our American cities, and how "society," the law, and the church clash—even amusingly—in considering, or in failing to consider these same problems—which have to do with every-day, "polite" family life. The book is full of laughter and tears, of unexpected twists, and delicious whimsicalities.



The Diamond Cross Mystery

The plot hinges on a murder and the mysterious disappearance of a cross of diamonds, and suspicion points to the lover of one of the sweetest girls ever introduced in fiction. And then—and this is unusual in a detective story—there is some real humor, the trail of Spotty, who was willing to confess to anything.

"Do I guess—or do I with confidence prepare my estimates from information based on actual, present-day conditions?"

You can end all wasteful guessing and safeguard your profits in one inerrable way by applying to every estimate the experience and methods of the country's leading engineering companies, construction engineers and contractors. Actual cost records, with over 600 detailed tables, taken from residences, stores and flats, office buildings, warehouses, manufacturing buildings, railroad shops of all kinds, schools, in fact, the entire structural field, are to be found in the COMPLETELY revised, enlarged and reprinted for 1922, this new edition of the standard guidebook for estimating building costs stands out as one of the most invaluable "tools" ever offered to the building and contracting field.

In compiling this work, Mr. Arthur has drawn not only on his own experience, but also on that of the leading industrial concerns in America allied with the building trade. A new book with a vital message that leaped at once into public favor. The first edition was sold within sixty days.

Out for Character

If one could pile up and present the staggering facts in the one item of the crushing, debasing, blasting, loathsome diseases that follow impurity, to say nothing of any other phase of punishment, surely for very fear of these terrible consequences, if for no other reason, men and women everywhere and all the time would plead and work and fight for the white, clean life and would stand like flint against every temptation to moral breakdown.

¶ It is a book that is manufactured right—good paper, modern type, bound in silk-finished cloth, and a real catchy colored jacket that will attract attention if the bookseller will only put them where the customer's eye can fall upon them. It is a book that will win favor from frequenters of your shop. It is the type of a book that one will feel like buying and presenting to his young men acquaintances, and young women, too, for that matter.

We furnish to the trade gratis four-page circulars with their own imprint.

Price $1.00 (5/s) Net Per Copy

A book termed by a prominent reviewer, "A Gold Mine for ambitious young men and young women." The Boston Transcript, one of the greatest literary papers in America, praises it warmly.

HOW TO MAKE GOOD
Touchstones of Success

A book that is getting more and more popular all the time, because a constantly growing army of readers are finding real nuggets of gold in its wonderful chapters which were written especially for this book by 160 present-day men of achievement, representing sixty-five different professions.

It is enthusiastically commended by prominent business men, Judges of Courts, educators, authors, bankers and inventors. Many of its chapters are worth more than the price asked for the entire book.

¶ It is being used to advantage in many of the high schools and colleges, because it is full of inspiration for the scholars of both sexes. It furnishes helpful themes for talks to the young.

Attractively bound in cloth, with colored jacket. Price $1.25 (6/s) net.

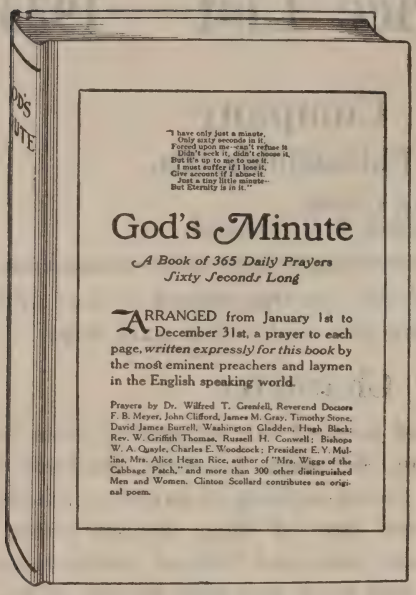
The Most Popular Devotional Book Ever Issued



God's Minute

325TH THOUSAND

More copies of this book were sold by the book trade during the past year even than in the first year that it was issued, about five years ago, when it bounded into public favor at once; eager customers are buying them in quantities to give to their friends.

Prayers by Drs. Wilfred T. Grenfell, W. W. Keen, Reverend Doctors F. B. Meyer, John Clifford, James M. Gray, Timothy Stone, David James Burrell, Washington Gladden, Hugh Black, Bishops W. A. Quayle, Charles E. Woodcock, President E. Y. Mullins, Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice, Miss Eva Booth, etc., etc.

Now in three bindings, 384 pages, cloth bound, 60 cents (3/s) per copy. Leatherette, gold top, with head bands, and silk marker, $1.00 (5/s) per copy. Art leather, with specially designed cover made especially for it, red under gold, head bands and silk marker, each copy boxed, $1.50 (8/s) per copy.

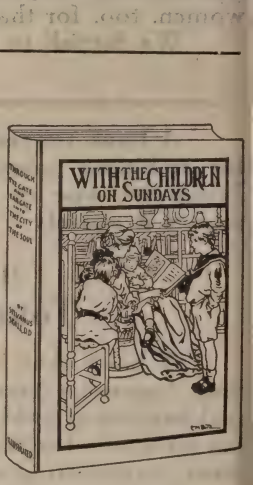
A Juvenile With a Message

With the Children on Sundays

By SYLVANUS STALL, D. D.

135 Line Drawings, 8 Full Page Color Illustrations by Miss C. N. Burd. Large quarto volume, size 9½ x 7. Full cloth. Price $1.75 (8/s) net.



The author's avowed object is to render Sunday a delightful time without in any way detracting from the sacredness of the day. Realizing that the normal child mind is the same on every day of the week, he introduces the idea of "Playing Church." The little ones drive to Church with chairs for horses. They act as ushers for their parents, their dollies and imaginary auditors. A regular service is conducted. The children themselves do some of the preaching, and at the close of the service a chapter from this book is read.

Each of the 52 object sermons is illustrated and the four-color page pictures and the half-tone illustrations make the book exceedingly artistic and beautiful. The chapters are all so interesting in this volume that one could scarcely speak of them as studies, but rather as illuminating conversations with the young. Those who have teaching to do often find their lessons fall flat and unprofitable, will find it full of suggestions, bright and stimulating.

¶ No expense was spared in making this volume attractive and appealing to the eyes, especially of the young. The pictures in the book are beautifully executed. Half a dozen or more put in the Juvenile Department in your store will sell them rapidly. One hundred thousand copies of this book have been sold.

A Veritable Wonder-Book for Children and Those Who are Older

Marvels of Our Bodily Dwelling

By MRS. MARY WOOD-ALLEN, M. D.

This is a wonder-book about this marvelous body of ours. It is a beautiful building, more exquisitely appointed than any structure of man's creation. Not only a dwelling, but a wonderful workshop wherein are done wonderful things—a laboratory where many marvelous processes are carried on; a manufactory where worn-out materials are destroyed and new substances created; a structure embodying wonders of mechanism and skill of engineering.

Cloth, with cover in four colors, stamped in gold. 328 pages printed on superb paper, with Five Half-Tone Pictures and 72 Line Drawings. Price, $1.50 (7/s) net.

Opinion of a Biological Expert

"This book tells a beautiful story, and in a wonderful way. It is full of information of the right sort, and I regret that there are not more such books, and that they are not more generally in the hands of the public."—The Late William F. Craig, A.M., M.D., Professor of Biology, Central High School, Philadelphia, Pa.

¶ This book makes a fine present for boys or girls. It tells in as fascinating a manner as does a fairy story, of the proper uses of the human body. It will help them to know what kind of food to avoid and how to take care of their teeth and other parts of their wonderful human structure. It does not touch on the sex question.

WHEN BOSTON BRAVED THE KING. A story of tea party times. Illustrated. 314 pp. Cloth. $1.75.

Commander Edw. L. Beach, U.S.N.

LIEUTENANT RALPH OSBORN ABOARD A TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER. 342 pp. Cloth. $1.75.

Commander E. L. Beach's stories for boys of the United States have helped immensely to explain the inner workings of an American man-of-war and to inspire patriotism and heroism in the young men of this generation. Mr. Beach writes of real events and true incidents in the Navy, and brings into play all the expert knowledge of the Navy which he has gained through years of experience.

Naval officers are one of the few classes of Americans who actually have interesting adventures now-a-days; consequently the navy appeals to the boy's imagination much as it did in the days of wooden ships. Commander Beach has put into his series of stories about Ralph Osborn some valuable information about the American navy, and much of his own life experience.

The development of the telephone has been one of the most important factors in developing our industrial resources, and the opening up of the Transcontinental service has been one of the greatest and most wonderful of achievements. This is a story of how a boy worked his way up and became one of the links in the development of this service. Pluck, courage and mental alertness served to guide and encourage him and it is a pleasure to realize that although the story is fiction, yet the characters are today in the telephone service.

Though defeated and taken prisoner by the enemy, the hero's talisman saves his life and later leads him into kingly favor. Finding that the little realm is lacking in all that charms the sense of smell, he determines to remedy the defect. Florence H. Darnell

THE BLACKBOARD CLASS FOR PRIMARY SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS. $ .50.

The author of this little book has hit the happy medium between practice and theory, giving just enough of both to enable one to draw, freely and effectively, some of the common and most useful subjects of Sunday-school illustration, while the explanations of the theory are extremely clear.

"I would say that Miss Darnell's experience in giving directions for blackboards to primary Sunday-school teachers has enabled her to make a most practicable book for all teachers. It is just such a book as primary Sunday-school teachers desire to have, and greatly need." —Mrs. Wilbur F. Crafts.

Rev. F. N. Peloubet, D. D.

SELECT NOTES. A commentary on the Sunday-school lessons. Cloth. $1.90. Delivered $2.00.

There is no other commentary made that begins to contain so much usable information, so many striking illustrations, or such judicious treatment of doctrinal questions as the "Select Notes," and it can be safely trusted to bring out most of the best points and teachings of the lessons in a manner that will commend itself to thoughtful men and women. Our younger readers will especially find it to be nearly indispensable, and their constant use of the "Select Notes" will tend to train their minds to work along those lines which will cause their teaching to become effective.

The suggestions to teachers, the maps and helps are decidedly good, and the collection of illustrative pictures is comprehensive and thoroughly interesting.

All of this abundant material is combined with the skill born of long training and experience, and placed before the teacher and student in the form that has been found most convenient and usable. These are the qualities that have commended "Peloubet's Notes" to a world-wide circle in the past, and that will continue to commend it in the years to come.

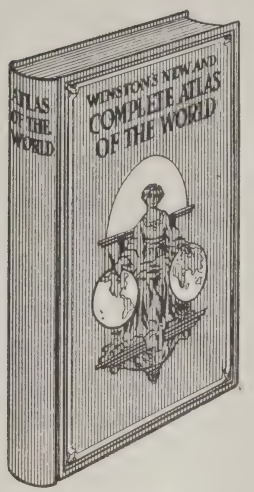
THE HANDY BOOK WITH THE BIG MAPS
All the Peace Maps and New Boundaries

Winston's New and Complete ATLAS OF THE WORLD

WITH 1920 CENSUS



With New Maps of Europe; of Canada and its Provinces; of the United States, its Forty-eight States, its Territories and Insular Possessions and Maps of the Whole World with Boundaries as Established by the Treaties of Peace following the World War :: :: :: :: ::

THE WORLD RE-MAPPED

When the Treaties of Peace were signed following the World War, a new world figuratively was created as far as an Atlas is concerned. Marked changes have been made in three continents—in the Islands of the Pacific, millions of square miles of territory have changed hands; new nations have been born; boundary lines have been redrawn, and even in our own country, names of towns have also been changed. It will, therefore, be seen that any Atlas previously published is practically obsolete and that a new Atlas containing changes in the maps of every portion of the globe is absolutely necessary.

This New Atlas, the Handy Book with the Big Maps, shows Every Country of the World with Boundaries as Established by the Provisions of the Treaties of Peace following the World War :: ::

With New Maps of France, Africa, Poland, Czecho-Slovakia, and all other countries affected by the War, as well as complete maps of our own country.

The maps embody the very latest idea in map-making. Their accuracy is fully established by the fact that they were engraved under the personal supervision of L. L. POATES, whose reputation as cartographer is known to educators the world over and whose services are sought by leading technical institutions and societies and by the Government in the making of maps in which clear definition and accuracy of detail are essential.

The Last Word in Map Making

Complete work comprises 224 pages, 192 pages of which are maps printed in five and six colors. It is printed on sturdy supercalendered paper and bound in the following styles:

Cloth, ink stamping..... $2.50
Flexible French Morocco, round corners, red under gold edges.... 4.50

FEATURES THAT MAKE THIS ATLAS INDISPENSABLE IN HOME, SCHOOL AND OFFICE

192 Pages of Maps are comprised in this Atlas. Besides new maps of the nations of Europe and other countries of the world, it contains a map of Canada, separate maps of the Provinces, map of the United States, separate maps of each state, territory and insular possession.

The Maps are Printed in Five and Six Colors of Ink instead of three colors—yellow, red and blue—as ordinarily employed.

The Locations of Towns, Rivers, Mountains and Boundaries are clearly Defined instead of the confused form of other Atlases.

Railroads are represented by a thin line of Red Ink, thereby clearly defining them. In other Atlases, railroads are printed in black ink which makes it difficult to distinguish them from river and boundary lines.

Mountain Ranges shown in Brown Ink, making it easier to distinguish the towns than if printed in black ink.

The Maps are 8½ x 10¾ inches in size.

The handy size of the volume fits it for a bookcase and the library table; it can be carried in a grip which opens a wide use for an Atlas for business men and travelers. The Atlas closed measures only 7 x 9½ inches. A full size map, such as is found in an Atlas that measures twice the size, is presented in the open book which measures 14 x 9½ inches.

A Gazetteer of the countries, of leading cities of the world, with their locations on the maps.

America of Today and Yesterday

The MAKING of OUR COUNTRY

BY SMITH BURNHAM, A.M.

Looking backward from the reconstruction days following the World War, Smith Burnham has pictured the growth of our country from the discovery of the continent, through the Colonial period, through the great days of expansion, through the terrible days of the war between the States, through the Great War that took two million of our boys to Europe, and on up to the present moment, with America in the forefront of all the nations on the planet.

THE LAND OF HEART'S DESIRE

As fascinating as any novel, this wonderful story brings home to the reader the real meaning of Americanism, beginning with its inexhaustible natural resources, showing the development of the American idea and how it has been taken hold of by the millions of immigrants, and giving a faithful picture of the social, industrial and intellectual aspects of our national life.

Seldom is a book published so crowded with illustrations. Included are reproductions (in color) of the famous historical paintings by J. L. G. Ferris.

THE SEVENTH SEAL

A reclamation of the Lost Word—the hidden meaning of the Holy Name—found in the symbology of the Tabernacle, seen to substantiate and also anticipate the conclusions of physical science; for while science searches single-handed for the key to the immense store of energy said to be locked up in the atom, and seeks to solve the problem of the struggle for existence in the matter of food, the Bible symbols quietly point the way to the emancipation sought, but clearly show that these blessings can come to mankind only through the development of the spiritual faculties. OUR BEGINNINGS IN EUROPE AND AMERICA

"Our Beginnings in Europe and America" is a little book, but in concise form it covers the whole course of humanity from the cave-man days to the coming of the Pilgrims to America. Here are intimate word-pictures of the life of the earliest men, of the earliest civilized peoples, of the Egyptians and Babylonians, of the Greeks, of the Romans and the widespread empire of Rome, of the Barbarians and the conquerors of Rome, of the Angles and Saxons and early English, of the peoples of the Middle Ages, of the peoples of Europe during the Reformation, of the first adventurers in the New World, of the Spaniards in America, the Dutch and finally the English; concluding with a chapter on what we inherited from the old world and what our people have done in the new world. There are illustrations almost on every page, with many maps and many photographs of recent undertakings showing the contrasts with the work of the past centuries. Freeman, R. Austin

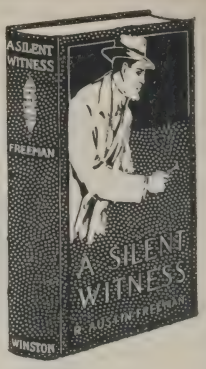
A SILENT WITNESS



The ordinary mystery story seems commonplace when compared with this new novel by Dr. Freeman. The plot is so buttressed by curious scientific facts, in the use of which Dr. Freeman is a past master, that it defies the most astute reader, and instructs while it fixes the interest. It is full of the thrill of perilous adventure, of fiendish conspiracy, and of hazardous attempts to ferret out a resourceful, unscrupulous criminal. How Thorndyke, medico-legal expert, pieces infinitesimal facts together with infinite care, how he bridges the gaps in his network, and triumphantly discovers the undiscoverable, makes him a classical figure among the great detectives of fiction. 8vo. 382 pages. Illustrations by H. Weston Taylor. Cloth.

TRENCH BALLADS AND OTHER VERSES

This book has been divided into three distinct parts: Trench Ballads consisting of forty American soldier Poems, based entirely on actual facts and incidents, almost exclusively of the author's own personal experiences and observations while serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France—Pre-War Poems consisting of three sets of verses written just before the active entering of America in the World War, and appertaining to, but not an integral part of it, and therefore grouped separately—other poems containing those of a general and non-military character. These poems, with few exceptions were all written in France; in fact many were scribbled on odd pieces of paper by the author while in the trenches. Bound in Attractive Cloth, 12mo. Price.....Net $1.40

ARMY BALLADS AND OTHER VERSES

HISTORY OF THE WORLD WAR—PEACE EDITION

A complete and authentic narrative, illustrated with official war pictures of the American, Canadian, British, French and Italian Governments. Including the Treaty of Peace and League of Nations Covenant.

In the foreword of this book the Author says: "Two ideals have been before us in the preparation of this necessary work. These are simplicity and thoroughness. It is of no avail to describe the greatest of human events if the description is so confused that the reader loses interest. Thoroughness is an historical essential beyond price. So it is that official documents prepared in many instances upon the field of battle and others taken from the files of the governments at war, are the basis of this work. Maps and photographs of unusual clearness and high authenticity illuminate the text. All that have gone into war making, into the regeneration of the world, are herein set forth with historical particularity. The book comprises 800 octavo pages (size 6⅞ x 9½ inches), over 200 illustrations, including portraits, maps, etc. Handsomely Bound in Cloth with Title Stamped on Side and back in Gold. Price.....Net $3.50

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A PENNSYLVANIAN UNALTERED UNEXPURGATED UNEDITED

Probably no writer dealing with public affairs and public men, since the publication of the famous "Pepys' Diary" has exercised so much freedom and intimate knowledge in commenting upon men and events. But while there may be special interest in the blunt references to nearly every man connected with the public life of Pennsylvania for the last fifty years, the value of the book as an important contribution to the literature of the State lies in the fact that Governor Pennypacker was perhaps the greatest student and chief exponent of Pennsylvania history. Bolles, Albert Sidney, Ph.D., LL.D. Author Modern Law of Banking, Banks and Their Depositors, Bank Officers. Formerly Professor of Commercial Law and Banking at the University of Pennsylvania. For 20 years editor of the Bankers' Magazine.

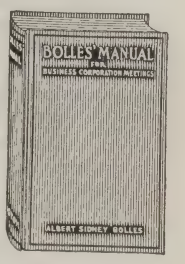
BOLLES' MANUAL FOR BUSINESS CORPORATION MEETINGS

Founded on the judicial interpretation of the rules of parliamentary law, applicable to all the states of the Union and to Canada.



This work covers a field not within the scope of any other parliamentary manual. It contains a full legal exposition of all matters of parliamentary practice by all the courts of last resort in the United States and Canada, as well as all the decisions of the courts of Great Britain deemed applicable to the subject. In the ordinary parliamentary manual, very little attention is given to the time and place of the meetings of associations, yet these matters have been the subject of much judicial inquiry and decision. What meetings, if any, can a business corporation hold outside the state of its incorporation is a live question, asked constantly, but to which no answer can be found in parliamentary manuals. The qualifications and duties of inspectors of elections are of growing complexity and importance. Likewise, the mode of holding meetings, the selection and duties of the chairman, the rule of the majority, the right of discussion at meetings, the rights of absentees, and how their absence affects the legality of a meeting's proceedings. Who can vote, is another question with many applications, to trustees, executors, option holders, corporations, pledgors and pledgees of stock, etc. Much of the voting nowadays is done by proxies. Many questions have arisen concerning them, all of which are answered in this book. There is a chapter also on voting, the rights of corporations to vote, and all the judicial decisions relating to cumulative voting. A New and Original Work, Not an Abridgment or an Adaptation from a Larger Work

THE WINSTON SIMPLIFIED DICTIONARY

The Genuine Flexible Leather Style has round corners and marbled edges. Titles on side and back are stamped in gold.

Including all the Words in Common Use Defined so that they can be Easily Understood

Edited by WILLIAM DODGE LEWIS, A.M., Pd.D.
Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, State of Pennsylvania, and

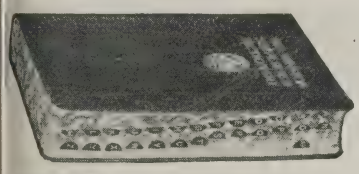
EDGAR A. SINGER, Ph.D.
Professor of Philosophy, University of Pennsylvania

Assisted by a Corps of Experienced Teachers

With over 800 Illustrations in the Text and Eight Full-page Color Plates

Clear and Easily Understood Definitions

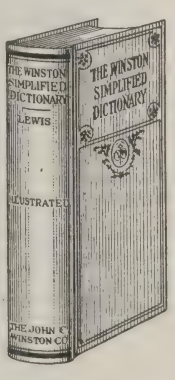
Other dictionaries of like purpose have been made by condensing larger works. This plan resulted in definitions which are harder to understand than those of a larger dictionary. For example, you find that contagion is "transmission of disease," but fail to get the idea unless you know the meaning of transmission. If you look at the word "contagious," you find that it is "communicable or spreading by contagion." If you are industrious enough to look up transmission, you find that it is "the act of transmitting; state of being transmitted." You may look below to the verb transmit and find the key to this problem; or you may satisfy yourself with a guess long before you have run the definition down by repeated references. THE WINSTON SIMPLIFIED DICTIONARY makes every entry clear, and explains every word in such simple language that only a single reference will be needed. Even in closely related words like the noun "transmission," and the verb "transmit," each definition is complete in itself.



The Flexible Leather Style has Patent Thumb Index cut on edge.

Unlike Any Other Dictionary

An extraordinary amount of the most careful and original work has been given to this book by experienced scholars and experts. New kinds of material have been introduced; new methods of clarifying meanings discovered; and the entire book harmonized. Careful judgment has been exercised on every question of method and form, while the simplicity and adequacy of all scientific statements have been carefully verified. THE WINSTON SIMPLIFIED DICTIONARY represents CAREFUL SCHOLARSHIP AND WIDE EXPERIENCE, such as has not been given to any dictionary of like purpose previously published.



The Cloth Style is a rich book. It is bound in the finest cloth made and has design on side and back stamped in gold.

A Large and Carefully Selected Vocabulary—Lists Over Forty Thousand Words

Each set out in bold type to catch the untrained eye, and each defined in terms easy to understand. It will be found useful in home and office and an aid to teachers in the elementary and high schools of the country, of particular value in vocational and continuation schools, and in Americanization classes, where older men and women are endeavoring to get a command of the language to fit them for intelligent citizenship.

"It is a public benefaction to get out such a book"
—Geo. Morris Philips, Principal of the West Chester, Penna., State Normal School

NOTABLE FEATURES OF MERIT IN

SIMPLIFIED DEFINITIONS

Each definition is given in clear and easily understood language and is complete in itself. In no instance is a word defined in terms of itself or in more difficult words, as is the case in other school dictionaries

WEALTH OF VERBAL ILLUSTRATIONS

Thousands of words are much more easily understood from their context in sentences than from definitions. For this reason THE WINSTON SIMPLIFIED DICTIONARY gives many more illustrative sentences and phrases than any other similar dictionary. An examination of any page will show how frequently this helpful device has been employed, and with what excellent results.

PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS OF EDUCATIONAL VALUE

The meaning of many words can best be shown by pictures. The illustrations in this dictionary are new pictures prepared for their value in clarifying the meanings of words, and in teaching. Over 800 new illustrations were made especially for this book.

TYPOGRAPHY

Every word defined is printed in large, clear type. The eye, instead of wandering all over the page, quickly catches the word desired. This is a result of exhaustive tests, and the most modern facilities in typesetting. Comparison will show that THE WINSTON SIMPLIFIED DICTIONARY has a more legible page than any other elementary dictionary published.

PRONUNCIATION

The pronunciation of the words is indicated by a phonetic respelling, with diacritical markings. The system is a simplified adaptation of those now in general use in school and college text books. The markings are very simple and easily understood. No attempt has been made to indicate obscure and difficult distinctions. To aid in obtaining the quick pronunciation of each word, a Key to Pronunciation is given at the foot of each page.

MANY NEW WORDS

Our ordinary vocabulary includes a great many words which have recently come into use. Automobiling, aviation, the development of science and industry, and the World War have added hundreds of new words, such as Ace, Anzac, Barrage, Bolshevism, Camouflage, Carburetor, Czech, Fuselage, Mandatory, Poilu, Profiteer, Soviet, Spartacan, Surtax, Tank, Tractor, Vitamine, etc. Most of these will not be found in any other dictionary published.

VOCABULARY

The selection of the vocabulary of THE WINSTON SIMPLIFIED DICTIONARY has been made with particular care. Its more than 40,000 entries include not only all the words in ordinary use, but also the vocabularies of science, history, and current events which are receiving such increasing attention in both elementary and secondary schools. Particular attention has been given to the very considerable vocabulary that has come into use as the result of the World War.

SYNONYMS AND ANTONYMS

Discriminated synonyms and antonyms are included, giving the simple equivalents or opposites of the more important words.

DERIVATIVES AND VARIANTS

The older and the Engiish spellings are given, however, as variants.

USE OF CAPITALS

The use of Capitals has been limited to proper nouns, adjectives, titles, etc. Correct usage in this respect is therefore shown at a glance.

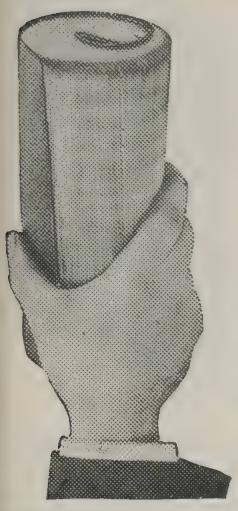
CLEARNUTYPE DICTIONARIES



ABSOLUTELY FLEXIBLE
The leather Bindings of the Universal CLEARNUTYPE Dictionaries are so flexible and so durable that they can be rolled without injury to binding or sewing.

The Universal CLEARNUTYPE Dictionaries are not called "Webster's" because no dictionary can claim to be modern or useful at the present time which has not been so much changed since the death of Webster in the year 1843 as to render the use of his name as the author of it a misnomer.

As the Language changes and grows Dictionaries must change and grow with it. Dictionaries made a few years ago, even with frequent revision, fail to meet the needs of to-day. It requires rebuilding to give the proper balance between the words and definitions in use to-day and those of yesterday.

The Unusual CLEARNUTYPE Dictionaries are based upon the foundation laid by NOAH WEBSTER and other lexicographers, modernized by CHARLES MORRIS.

In clearness of type and the ease with which the eye finds the word; in simplicity and accuracy of definition; in fullness of contents and logical arrangement Universal CLEARNUTYPE will be found to excel other works of like purpose.

Among the Noteworthy Features are the Following:

Words defined are printed in bold-face type with definitions in clear, easily read type.

Each word is divided into syllables to show the proper syllabication of words.

The capitalization of words. All proper words begin with capital letters, common words with small letters.

Compound words have a bold-face hyphen.

Synonyms and antonyms are given in the body of the dictionary following the definitions of the words.

The Pronunciation of words is shown by a clear and properly accented system of phonetic spelling with key to pronunciation at the bottom of each page.

The parts of speech are given.

All definitions are given in simple language that is easily understood.

Each word and its derivation are defined separately instead of the derivatives being crowded in with the definitions; an expedient which saves space but lacks utility.

Grace Before Meals

William Nyce and Hubert Bunyea

Brief prayers for every day in the year collected from many sources and arranged. Additional forms for national feast days, so that the monotony of repetition of a single form of grace each day is happily avoided. It also provides a method by which the several members of the family, including the children, can alternate in saying grace by reading the prayer for the day. The book is printed from handsome black type, is attractive in appearance, and will appeal to all persons who customarily say grace before meals, as well as to those who do not make a practice of saying grace, and it is hoped to many who have not been accustomed to this beautiful and simple form of devotion. 16 mo. in size.

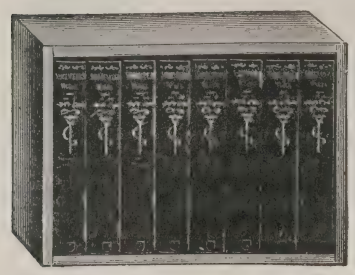
Shakespeare's Complete Works

FALSTAFF EDITION—ILLUSTRATED



Edited by GEORGE LONG DUYCKINCK, with a full and comprehensive Life of Shakespeare by J. PAYNE COLLIER, A.M. Illustrated with 32 portraits of famous actors and actresses whose names are linked with Shakespearian productions

This set of Shakespeare combines neatness with serviceability. The books are small, but stoutly as well as handsomely bound, and the type is clear and easily read, printed on good stout paper. There is nothing of the toy about this little library of the immortal Shakespeare. The books are made to be handled and read, not to be put on the shelf for show purposes.

Notes are avoided as far as possible, but preceding each play is an explanatory introduction, and in addition there is a glossary which clarifies unusual words. It will be remembered that Shakespeare had a greater vocabulary than any other man; nearly three times as extensive as that of the man in the street.

As well as the plays and poems of Shakespeare, there is an entertaining history of the English stage and drama to the time of the master playwright; a backward glance revealing simplicity of stage settings without any of the mechanical facilities that mean so much to the modern stage manager. Also there is a vivid word-picture of the life of Shakespeare himself.

MARY FRANCES STORY-INSTRUCTION BOOKS

FOR TEACHING CHILDREN USEFUL THINGS IN AN ENTERTAINING WAY

But in this play they learn principles of usefulness which fascinate because of the manner in which these principles are presented

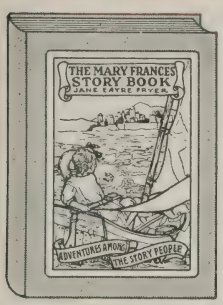
The Mary Frances Story Book

Or Adventures Among the Story People

By Jane Eayre Fryer

The Mary Frances Story Book is different from previously published Mary Frances Books. These books are part story and part lessons; they teach something about cooking and sewing, knitting and crocheting, housekeeping and gardening and first aid—and tell a story, too; but The Mary Frances Story Book is all story, including stories of humor and fun, of courage and perseverance, of kindness and generosity, of service and reward, of fair play and good manners, of home and country.

STORIES THAT BREATHE SUNSHINE AND HAPPINESS



On a summer afternoon Mary Frances took a holiday and sailed away across the blue water to an island—an island formed by the top of a coral mountain resting in a sea of blue, oh, so blue—a brighter blue than the water in your mother's bluing tub—not the blue that makes you feel sad and blue, but the blue that makes you laugh with happiness. The island itself and the roofs of the houses were coral-white, and the green was the green of the palm and banana and mahogany tree. The breezes that blew over them were the warm soft breezes of the southern sun. This island was the enchanted island of the good story-tellers which Mary Frances was allowed to visit. The story people who lived there believed in truth and beauty, and courage and kindness, and love of home and country; and these were the theme of their stories. Like all good islands this island had enemies, for there were a pirate's cove, a devil's den, and evil persons who meant no good; but they came to a bad end as, in the long run, all evil places and persons will; and truth and beauty and courage and kindness won the day, as they always must in every land where the searchlight of the sun flashes its beams. As may be imagined, when Mary Frances came home she had not only one, but many stories to tell; and they are written in this book.

FULL OF ATTRACTIVE ILLUSTRATIONS

The complete book is the size of the Mary Frances Sewing Book and is profusely illustrated, including many full-page plates in colors.

Size 7 x 9½ inches; 320 pages; bound in cloth, with attractive cover design. Price, $2.00 net.

The Mary Frances Sewing Book

Or Adventures Among the Thimble People

By Jane Eayre Fryer

The story of how the Thimble People taught Mary Frances to sew is as quaint and delightful a story as ever appealed to a child's imagination. It leads the reader irresistibly on to learn what Mary Frances learned, and to find out all the amusing experiences which she had with these comical little elves.

The Bound-In and Detachable Patterns are Worth the Price of the Book

One of the most unique features of this book are the thirty-three patterns, which include everything to complete the doll's wardrobe—underclothes, morning, afternoon and party gowns; coats, bonnets, caps, night-gown, kimono, and all the dainty little things to delight a child's heart. The patterns are bound in the book in duplicate—one set on heavy paper to remain permanently in the book, with a second set on thin paper that can be detached for use. They are regular, full-size working-patterns with full directions for their use, and enable a girl to outfit her doll completely.

Mary Frances Knitting and Crocheting Book

Or Adventures Among the Knitting People

By Jane Eayre Fryer

Here is the fascinating story of how little Mary Frances took her first lesson in crocheting and knitting, and from this advanced to deserve recognition as an expert. The first steps were making things for dollies, but after a girl has learned to crochet and knit for the dollies it is "as easy as A-B-C" to crochet and knit for real people.

Even the Littlest Girl can Learn with Crochet Hook and Knitting Needle

Fullest instructions given in simple language on how to make a doll's crocheted necklace, how to make chain stitches, single and double crochet, how to make crocheted bedroom slippers, how to knit plain, how to purl, how to knit an aviator doll's outfit, and a hundred other things that give delight. An absorbing book for grown-ups as well as chilldren.

Pictures on Every Page—Everywhere you open the book there are piquant pictures; and in addition to those in black and white are a number of colored illustrations showing exactly what can be done with colored wools.

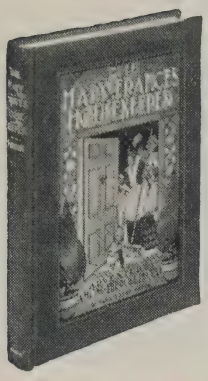
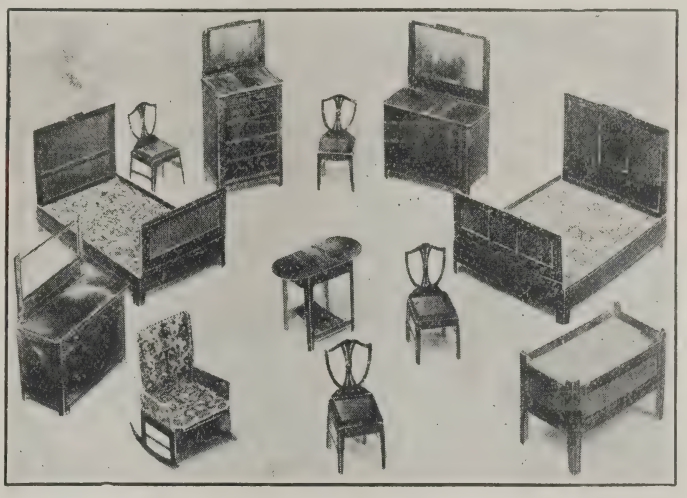
The Mary Frances Housekeeper

Or Adventures Among the Doll People

By Jane Eayre Fryer



It is doubtful whether any story more captivating than The Mary Frances Housekeeper has ever been written for girls. In the most skilful manner, it takes advantage of the natural childish instinct to "play house," and the opportunity to instil the fundamental principles of good housekeeping is improved through the medium of the delightful story of Mary Frances' experience in teaching her dolls to keep house.

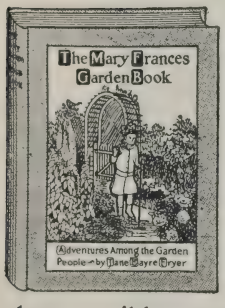


36 sheets of wonderful paper dolls and cut-out furniture. There is a whole family of dolls and a houseful of furniture. The furniture folds together with a patented, self-locking system that obviates the use of paste, pins, etc. The sheer delight of cutting out and playing with the furniture and dolls, whose fortunes are recounted in the story, creates an intense interest in the housekeeping instruction. Size 7 x 9½ inches; 280 pages; bound in cloth, with attractive cover design, colored frontispiece, and colored decorations on every page. Price, $2.00 net.

The Mary Frances Garden Book

Or Adventures Among the Garden People

By Jane Eayre Fryer



How to grow flowers and vegetables clearly told in story form. The Mary Frances Garden Book actually teaches children how to grow all their favorite flowers and vegetables—how to prepare the soil, how to plant the seeds, how to plant bulbs, the names of parts of flowers, how plants grow by fertilization and reproduction, how to guard against insect enemies, how to care for growing plants, how to make a hotbed, what flowers and vegetables are best for children's gardens, etc., etc. and gives an outline of each month's work for a year. In brief, in the simplest possible words and style, and in the most fascinating kind of story, it gives the little reader a more intelligent knowledge of the processes of Nature.

COLORED ILLUSTRATIONS ON EVERY PAGE

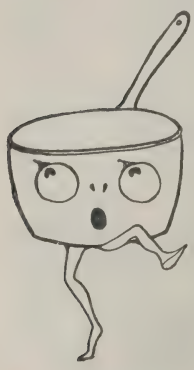
In addition to colored illustrations, on every page, there are a number of colored cut-out gardens painted direct from photographs to show the form and color of the flowers, and to prove that the garden plans in the book are not "ideals," but an actual working basis for little gardeners. 378 pages; size 7 x 9½ inches. Bound in cloth, with an attractive cover design. Price, $2.00 net.

The Mary Frances Cook Book

Or Adventures Among the Kitchen People

By Jane Eayre Fryer

This winsome book tells in story form how Mary Frances learned to cook. It gives the recipes in the simplest, plainest words. It describes every operation clearly—just what she did, the mistakes she made (mistakes other little girls are apt to make at first) and how she learned to overcome them. The recipes are arranged in the order of their simplicity. The easiest comes first, and by gradual steps as experience gives confidence the young reader is led to the preparation of the more difficult dishes.



"A Sauce Pan is a funny thing."

TURNS DRUDGERY INTO PLEASURE AND CREATES A DESIRE TO BE HELPFUL

The book is attractive to children. It makes the use of common kitchen utensils a pleasure instead of drudgery. The pots and pans are made to talk, and what they say entertains as well as instructs. They become the Kitchen People, each with a personality of its own. No one who reads of "Aunty Rolling Pin" and her quaint speeches will ever again think of a rolling pin as a mere thing of wood. So with all the Kitchen People; their personalities are impressed on the young mind in such a way as to attract instead of repel.

Arabian Nights

Over a thousand years ago lived the great Caliph of Bagdad, Haroun-al-Raschid, around whom center the tales of the Arabian Nights. More fascinating tales were never told. It is related of Antoine Galland, the Frenchman, who was the first to introduce the tales to Europe, that after he had published a few of the stories, he was roused from sleep by bands of young men under his windows in Paris, importuning him to "tell them another story." The tales have lost no whit of their charm in the passing of the centuries. Customs have changed, but human nature has changed but little. It is because the tales of the Thousand and One Nights are true to life that they have maintained their grip on all sorts and conditions of readers, young and old. This new edition has the best of the stories, including the old favorites, "Ali Baba," "Sinbad," "Aladdin," as well as the less known "Enchanted Horse," "The Story of the Fisherman," "The Magic Carpet," "The Adventures of Caliph Haroun," and a host of others. The type is large and easily read. The tales are profusely illustrated. It is an exceedingly attractive volume a triumph of the arts of the translator, the illustrator, the engraver and the printer.

TWILIGHT ANIMAL STORIES

By GEORGE ETHELBERT WALSH

This series of eleven titles is undoubtedly the best and most interesting Animal Series published for children between the ages of six to ten. The animals are pictured true to life and are not dressed in fantastic and grotesque costumes. There is a wealth of true animal and wood lore to be learned by the child, and in addition, love for the great outdoors is instilled in the heart of the reader.

HIGHLY ENDORSED BY LIBRARIANS AND EDUCATORS

These books have been read by librarians, educators, booksellers, in fact, by all types of persons qualified to judge juvenile books of this character and have been pronounced by them in every instance as the best stories of their type written.

FOR CHILDREN BETWEEN THE AGES OF SIX AND TEN

These stories appeal to children between the ages of six and ten, which represents an important period in the average child's life, and for which comparatively little has been written. It is at this age that they begin doing their own reading and a better selection of books for this purpose could not be found. They also make ideal stories to be read to the still younger children at the bedtime hour.

ATTRACTIVELY AND SUBSTANTIALLY MADE

We have made every effort possible to make these books attractive by printing from large readable type, using suitable illustrations made especially for this series by Frederick Richardson, one of America's foremost illustrators, and binding them in durable form. The "Red Cross Girls" Series

By MARGARET VANDERCOOK

Author of "Stories About Camp Fire Girls," the "Ranch Girls" Series, etc.

While Mrs. Vandercook is widely known, both in this country and abroad, for her short stories, poems and other articles contributed to magazines, and more recently as a novelist, her enviable reputation rests chiefly on her popularity as a writer of girls' books. In her latest series, the "Red Cross Girls' Series, she has excelled all her previous achievements. These stories deal with four girls of widely different education who enlist as Red Cross nurses in the European War. Mrs. Vandercook has avoided everything of a depressing or gruesome nature in the development of these stories, yet the elements of heroism and self-sacrifice are most commendably employed in the account of the services which the girls render on and near the great battle-field. More than that, the lighter and romantic aspects of these stories will endear them to a host of readers. The books are alive with plot and action. Handsomely bound in cloth. Fully illustrated. Attractive cover design. 12mo.

The Julia Greene Cut-Out Series of Famous Children's Stories

TOLD IN POETRY AND PROSE. ILLUSTRATED WITH ORIGINAL COLORED CUT-OUTS

Designed by HELEN PETTES and JULIA GREENE

This unique series provides in a new and doubly attractive form those stories of childhood which though generations or even centuries old, are always as new as the day they first took form. These stories are related in both poetry and prose and are made attractive in a new way by colored cut-out figures and furniture which enable the delighted little readers to reconstruct the stories and act them over and over in all possible variations to their hearts' content. In "Goldilocks and the Three Bears," for example, the cut-outs, printed on heavy, coated paper, include the four characters, with their clothing, and the chairs, beds and porridge bowls which are so real a part of the immortal story. These cut-outs are drawn in a spirit of sympathy and verity, with a real appreciation of childish imagination, and are beautifully colored. Without doubt these books will instantly take their place anywhere among the most attractive and popular of all books designed for little folks. Size, 11 x 8 inches. LOOSE-LEAF BIBLE

PROTECTED BY UNITED STATES AND CANADIAN PATENT RIGHTS

COMPRISING

THE AUTHORIZED VERSION OF THE BIBLE IN LOOSE-LEAF FORM

AND

OVER 250 LOOSE-LEAF PAGES FOR PERSONAL NOTES THAT CAN BE INSERTED IN ANY NUMBER OF PAGES, BETWEEN ANY PAGES OF THE BIBLE

Stronger than a regular bound Bible and more flexible, too, for the Loose-Leaf Bible can be rolled without injury to binding and without danger of loosening the pages

A PRACTICAL BIBLE FOR NOTES

The granting of final patents by the United States Government on August 27, 1918, and on June 24, 1919, by the Canadian Government on this Invisible Loose-Leaf binder, solved the problem for a Bible in which pages containing notes can be inserted ANYWHERE in ANY NUMBER.

Years ago the wide margin Bible was made to meet this demand, but failed because it made too bulky a volume and gave too little writing space.

This was followed by the interleaved Bible with a page of writing paper between every other page, which was equally unsatisfactory.

The event of India Paper made possible an interleaved Bible with a page of writing paper between every page of the Bible, but even this thin paper made a thick, unhandy volume and added useless blank pages where they would never be used and only one page where several pages were wanted, and the blank pages being placed between every page of the Bible broke the continuity of the printed text of the Bible.

Looks exactly like a regular divinity circuit bound Bible. It has no outside metal parts to mar the desk or table. Neither has it any rings or springs to get out of order. The binding device is invisible

All these disadvantages are overcome in the "International" Loose-Leaf Bible.

ELASTICITY

Add pages anywhere In any number

With the "International" Loose-Leaf Bible, pages containing your notes can be added in any number anywhere in the Bible. Included with the Bible are more than 250 pages of faintly ruled writing paper which can be used to write on the lines or without regard to the lines and can be inserted right with the passage in the Bible to which your notes refer.

LOOSE-LEAF ADVANTAGES

The writing pages can be separated from the volume, thereby making it more convenient to write upon than if bound with the volume. For those who use a typewriter, this system will also be found a great convenience.

These pages with your notes can be inserted right with the passage to which the notes refer and more than one leaf can be inserted. Many students add notes at the beginning of the books of the Bible and by the Loose-Leaf method, which provides elasticity, any number of pages can be inserted in such portions of the Bible. In fact, its flexibility fits it for any individual use.

THE SIMPLICITY OF THE MECHANISM GUARANTEES ITS PERFECT ACTION

It is only a matter of a few seconds to insert blank pages or written pages containing your notes in any number of pages—anywhere in the Bible.

The Bible can be opened anywhere and new pages added without any danger of the leaves scattering.

Every page is held as tight as the pages in a regular sewed book; in fact it is much stronger than a regular sewed Bible.

There are no unsightly outside metal parts to mar the desk or table. No rings or springs to get out of order.

FORM OF THE VOLUME NOT CHANGED BY ADDING PAGES

Pages in addition to those furnished with the Bible can also be supplied. These pages are punched ready for insertion and have red under gold edges, so as to conform with the edges of the pages of the Bible and with the blank pages furnished with the Bible. The binder expands automatically to include extra pages and this expansion does not change the form of the Bible as the binding device is invisible.

ONLY ONE INCH THICK

The "International" Loose-Leaf Bible is printed from black face type on India Paper so thin that a thousand pages measure only five-eighths of an inch thick. The complete Loose-Leaf Bible including the more than 250 pages of writing paper make the complete volume only one inch thick. The volume measures 6 x 7-⅜ thick.

LOOKS EXACTLY LIKE A REGULAR DIVINITY CIRCUIT BOUND BIBLE

BOUND IN GENUINE MOROCCO, DIVINITY CIRCUIT STYLE (OVERLAPPING COVERS), ROUND CORNERS, RED UNDER GOLD EDGES.....PRICE $12.00

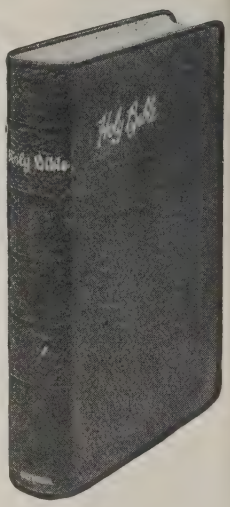
The

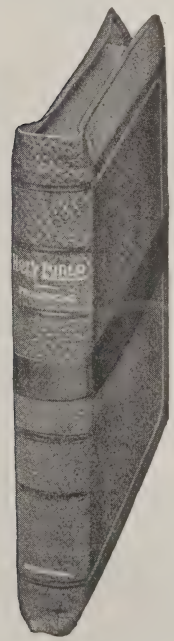
Bindings of International Bibles

Representative Cloth Binding. Extra Imported Cloth is used. The lettering is always stamped in pure gold.

The cuts used in describing the bindings in this catalog are for the most part wood cuts, and therefore fail to adequately show the beauty of the different bindings, and for that reason we represent the three classes of bindings in the half-tone cuts shown on this page, which are reproduced by photographic process and are therefore exact. The different classes of Bibles are bound similar to these reproductions which will give you a better idea of their attractiveness, but even these cuts fail to represent the beauty of the Bibles themselves.



Representative Leather Limp Binding, usually Seal Grained Leather is used, except on small Bibles where a small Grained Leather is used. These bindings are very durable.

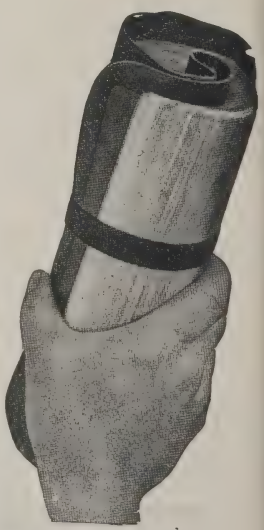


Representative Divinity Circuit Binding, with overlapping edges. International Bibles have an appearance that is distinctive.

With Reference to Cuts

We are always pleased to furnish cuts of Bibles to customers for advertising purposes free of charge. In ordering cuts, please always give the number of the page on which the desired cut is printed and also the name of the Bible it represents, so that no mistake can be made in filling the order. We can also furnish electrotypes of type specimens, and are always willing to lend our assistance in the preparation of advertising material.

THE JOHN C. WINSTON CO.



International Bibles are so flexible and durable they can be rolled without injury to binding or sewing.

Specimen Page and Explanation of CLEARNUTYPE Bible

The type is larger, clearer and more easily read than any other pronouncing Bible of same size.

The books of the Bible are printed in this clear type on the outer edge, which enables one to find any book in the Bible quickly by simply bending over the upper corner. Many Bible-users prefer this to having an expensive index cut on the edge.

of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 CHAPTER 2.

1 The first sabbath. 8 The garden of Eden. 21 The making of woman. 24 The institution of marriage.

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Ē'dĕn; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Ē'dĕn to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pī'son: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Hăv'i-lah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gī'hon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-â.

14 And the name of the third river is Hĭd'de-kĕl: that is it which goeth toward the east of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-â. And the fourth river is Ū-phrā'tēs.

15 And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Ē'dĕn to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Ăd'ăm to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Ăd'ăm called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Ăd'ăm gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Ăd'ăm there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Ăd'ăm, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

23 And Ăd'ăm said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAPTER 3. 3

1 Eve deceived. 6 The fall of man. 14 The curse. 22 Expulsion from the garden.

NOW the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field

All through the Bible proper words are accented and divided into syllables, which makes pronunciation easy. This feature is useful, especially in the Old Testament which abounds with difficult words.

Gives the consecutive number of each chapter of the Bible, showing that there are 1189 chapters in the Bible

Note the clearness of the type.

9 And the LORD was angry with Sŏl'o-mon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Is'ra-el, which had appeared unto him twice,

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Sŏl'o-mon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

25 And he was an adversary to Is'ra-el all the days of Sŏl'o-mon, beside the mischief that Hā'dăd did: and he abhorred Is'ra-el, and reigned over Sȳr'i-a.

26 And Jĕr-o-bō'am the son of Nē'băt, an Ĕph'rath-īte of Zĕr'e-da, Sŏl'o-mon's servant, (whose mother's name was Ze-ru'ah, a widow woman,) even he lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Sŏl'o-mon built Mĭl'lo, and repaired the breaches of the city of Dā'vid his father.

28 And the man Jĕr-o-bō'am was a mighty man of valour: and Sŏl'o-mon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Jō'seph.

of great authority under Căn′dā-çē queen of the E-thi-ō′pi-ans, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jē-ru′sā-lēm for to worship,
28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read E-sā′ias the prophet.
29 Then the Spirit said unto Phil′ip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.
30 And Phil′ip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet E-sā′ias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.
32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:
33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.
34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?
35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.
36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?
37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.
39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.
40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cæsarea.

CHAP. 9.
1 And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,
2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.
3 And as he journeyed he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:
4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.
6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.
7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.
8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Dā-mās′cus.
9 And he was three days without

The experience of recent years has brought much additional light upon many subjects of Biblical knowledge, has shown that the plan of Bible Aids could be improved, and has also revealed a need among teachers, ministers, and Bible readers for a more popular handbook with the information written in language free from the technicalties of scholars. The work of simplifying was assigned to Rev. Jesse Lyman Hurlbut, D.D., widely known as a Biblical scholar and as a TEACHER OF TEACHERS in the Sunday-school. Some of the improvements in this work over other Bible commentaries are noteworthy. (See full description on next page.)

A WELCOME IMPROVEMENT

"INTERNATIONAL" CLEARNUTYPE

TEACHERS' BIBLE

SELF-PRONOUNCING

Publishing and manufacturing over five hundred styles of "International" Bibles and Testaments (the largest line of Self-Pronouncing Bibles in the world), it would seem that there was no need for a new edition of the Bible; but this new Bible represents a distinct improvement over any form in which the Bible has hitherto been issued. In clearness of type, convenience of size, and logical arrangement, it is adapted to every class of Bible readers.

CLEARNUTYPE

While the text of the Bible does not change, modern methods of typography make possible the production of a type that is larger in size, more easily read, and more restful to the eyes, and yet makes a more convenient size, and a lighter weight book, than is ordinarily obtainable in a Bible printed from small type. The type used in this new Bible was moulded especially for the purpose. It is the largest, clearest type to be found in any Bible of like size.

The Highest Development of Modern Progress

In addition to the large clear type, the full contents also commend this Bible. It contains the Authorized Version of the Old and New Testaments, with sixty thousand references in the center column; has the books of the Bible printed on outer edge, which facilitates quick reference and overcomes the necessity of cutting an index on edge; has all proper words accented and divided into syllables, making pronunciation easy; has the most accurate, most usable aids to Bible study to be found in any Bible; and has seventeen colored maps of the Holy Lands.

New Type of Teachers' Aids to Bible Study

The logical arrangement of the helps is another improvement and a great convenience. All the aids (covering over 400 pages), including Complete Concordance, Subject Index, Dictionary, etc., etc., are under one Alphabetical Arrangement instead of separate headings as employed in the old type of Bible. Furthermore, these new helps are illustrated and are the only helps printed from black face type to be found in any Bible, which makes them more readable and useful.

A Bible You Will Be Proud to Own

This Bible is printed on thin rag paper specially made for it. Jet black ink is used in the printing to make the type stand forth clearly. Handsome Flexible Leather Bindings, with overlapping covers, red-under-gold edges, head-bands and purple ribbon marker, all serve in making it the finest expression in Bible making.

ecimen Page and Explanation of CLEARNUTYPE Bible

The type is larger, clearer and more easily read than any other pronouncing Bible of same size.

At the head of each page is given the approximate date of the incident referred to on that page

The Books of the Bible are printed in this clear type on the outer edge, which enables one to find any book in the Bible quickly by simply bending over the upper corner. Many Bible-users prefer this to having an expensive index cut on the edge.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that [z]Ă-bĭm'e-lĕch and Phĭ'chol the chief captain of his host spake unto Ă'bră-hăm, saying, [v]God is with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now therefore [z]swear unto me here by God [1]that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Ă'bră-hăm said, I will swear.

25 And Ă'bră-hăm reproved Ă-bĭm'e-lĕch because of a well of water, which Ă-bĭm'e-lĕch's servants had violently [a]taken away.

26 And Ă-bĭm'e-lĕch said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to day.

27 And Ă'bră-hăm took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Ă-bĭm'e-lĕch; and both of them [b]made a covenant.

28 And Ă'bră-hăm set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Ă-bĭm'e-lĕch said unto Ă'bră-hăm, [c]What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that [d]they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he [e]called that place [2]Bĕ'er–shĕ'bȧ; because there they sware both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Bĕ'er–shĕ'bȧ: then Ă-bĭm'e-lĕch rose up, and Phĭ'chol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the [f]land of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes.

33 ¶ And Ă'bră-hăm planted a [3]grove in Bĕ'er–shĕ'bȧ, and called there on the name of the LORD, the [g]everlasting God.

34 And Ă'bră-hăm sojourned in the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes' land many days.

22 CHAPTER 22.

1 Abraham offers Isaac. 13 A ram substituted. 15 Abraham blessed. 20 Nahor's offspring.

AND it came to pass after these things, that [a]God did tempt Ă'bră-hăm, and said unto him, Ă'bră-hăm: and he said, [1]Behold, here I am.

2 And he said, [b]Take now thy son, thine only son Ī'şaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land [c]of Mō-rī'ah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 ¶ And Ă'bră-hăm [d]rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Ī'şaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Ă'bră-hăm lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Ă'bră-hăm said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

6 And Ă'bră-hăm took the wood of the burnt offering, and [e]laid it upon Ī'şaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together.

7 And Ī'şaac spake unto Ă'bră-hăm his father, and said, My father: and he said, [2]Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the [3]lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Ă'bră-hăm said, My son, God will provide himself [f]a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Ă'bră-hăm built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and [g]bound Ī'şaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Ă'bră-hăm [h]stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Ă'bră-hăm, Ă'bră-hăm: and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, [i]Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now [j]I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.

13 And Ă'bră-hăm lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Ă'bră-hăm went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering [k]in the stead of his son.

14 And Ă'bră-hăm called the name of that place [4]Jĕ-hō'vah–jī'reh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

15 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto Ă'bră-hăm out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, [l]By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son:

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the [m]stars of the heaven, and as the [n]sand which is upon the sea [5]shore; and thy seed shall [o]possess the gate of his enemies;

18 And [p]in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because [q]thou hast obeyed my voice.

19 So Ă'bră-hăm returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Bĕ'er–shĕ'bȧ; and Ă'bră-hăm dwelt at Bĕ'er–shĕ'bȧ.

CLEARNUTYPE INDIA PAPER BIBLE

Containing the authorized version of the Old Testament and the New Testament, with all proper names accented and divided into syllables—and maps in colors.

While the text of the Bible does not change, modern methods of typography make possible the production of a type that is larger in size, more easily read, and more restful to the eyes, and yet makes a more convenient size, and a lighter weight book, than is ordinarily obtainable in a Bible printed from small type. The type used in this new Bible was moulded especially for the purpose. It is the largest, clearest type to be found in any self-pronouncing Bible of like size.

THE SIZE COMMENDS IT FOR MANY USES

Notwithstanding the Clear Type used in this Bible the page measures but 5¼ x 7¼ inches. Its adaptability as a most usable hand Bible or a Bible that can be conveniently carried in the coat pocket is instantly apparent.

EASIEST READING BIBLE

It is believed that no form in which the Scripture has ever been published makes the reading of it so attractive to both old and young, nor are any Commentaries, voluminous and extensive as they may be, to be compared with this simple system of markings and indexing, in explaining and making easy the way of Salvation.

EVERY PAGE IS HELPFUL AND LEADS TO FURTHER DISCOVERY OF THE GREATEST TRUTHS IN GOD'S WORD

EXPLANATION OF MARKINGS

THE INDEX, OR KEY directs the reader to the first verse in the Bible on a subject, and, at the close of the first verse on that subject, there is a reference to the next verse on the same subject; so, that (though it may be fifty or one hundred pages away), the reader turns forward rapidly verse to verse, in regular order, until he reads everything in the whole Bible on that subject. Then he turns back, to the index or key, at the beginning, and takes up the next subject in the general plan of Salvation, with the first versei n the Bible on that subject, and reads straight through as before. And, so, one continues until the seventeen subjects, which complete the whole theme of Salvation, shall have been read through. This arrangement will enable anyone to conduct a Bible Reading on any of the following at a moment's notice.

H 6 And it [g]repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it [h]grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; [3]both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. H. 19. 12, 13.

8 But Nō'ah [i]found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Nō'ah: Nō'ah was a just man and [4]perfect in his generations, and Nō'ah walked with God.

10 And Nō'ah begat three sons, Shĕm, Hăm, and Jā'pheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

C 12 And God looked [5]upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. C. Exod. 20. 5.

F 13 And God said unto Nō'ah, The [k]end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them [5]with the earth.

14 Make thee an ark of gopher wood; [6]rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch. F. 6. 20.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, [l]behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth [m]shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

F 20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive. F. 6. 22.

21 And take thou unto thee of all [n]food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

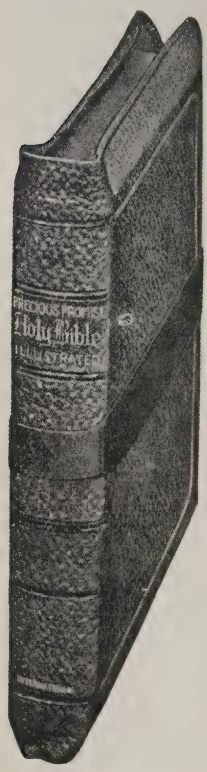
A Galaxy of Promises Like the Milky Way in the Heavens

The "International" Self-Pronouncing
Precious Promise Bible

Being the Authorized Version of the Scriptures with the Exceedingly Great and Precious Promises Indexed and Marked in Red



Size, 5½ x 8½ inches

That which inspires more searching of the Scriptures than any other of their varied contents is the promises. In anxiety, in perplexity, in disappointment, in poverty, in loneliness, in sorrow, we turn to this book for guidance, for strength, for comfort, and for cheer. Imagine a Bible with all its promises stricken out, and blank spaces in their stead—would many people spend time in reading such a Bible?

Marks the Promises of Help for Every Human Need in Every Home

Even though one be a daily reader of the Bible, it is not always easy to find or to recall from so large a volume the text needed at some special hour. Profound scholars of the Bible have done this for us in the most simplified form in the PRECIOUS PROMISE BIBLE, and have brought the treasures of the Scriptures to light. Each promise is marked in red, and all the promises are divided into classes. Each class is so indicated and tied together that the reader can easily trace any class of promises through the Bible from text to text, and find for himself a wealth of promises upon any subject desired.

Precious Promise Subjects Marked in this Bible

- A. ALL THINGS Working Together for Good.

EXPLANATION

In the Precious Promise Bible is an Index (shown in reduced size above) in which the promises are classified under different subjects, and a letter is used to stand for the principal word of each subject.

After each subject in the Index there is a reference to the first verse in the Old Testament and also a reference to the first verse in the New Testament on that subject. Underneath each subject in the Index there are several references to the most important verses in the Scriptures on that subject.

The letter which stands for each subject is printed on the margin of every promise on that subject. The letter which stands for each subject is also used in front of every reference on that subject.

After every promise marked in this Bible there is a reference to the next promise on the same subject. This enables any person to go through the Bible and read every promise on any particular subject.

A. D. 31.

CHAP. 6.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your [f]Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. K. 7. 7–11.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: [g]Our Father which art in heaven, [h]Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, [i]as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our [j]daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. F. verses 25–34.

13 And [k]lead us not into temptation, but deliver [l]us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Ā-mĕn'.

14 For [m]if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But [n]if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶Moreover [o]when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. U. verse 33.

19 ¶Lay [p]not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But [q]lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The [r]light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, [s]how great is that darkness!

24 No [t]man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [u]Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, [4]Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. C. F. L. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold [v]the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Sŏl'o-mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? P.

32 (For after all these things do the Gĕn'tīles seek:) for [w]your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But [x]seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. U. 13. 8.

34 Take therefore no [5]thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. C. 10. 10.

L. 16. 18.

CHAPTER 7. P. 10. 10.*

Christ endeth his sermon on the mount.

JUDGE [a]not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: [b]and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And [c]why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶Give [d]not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls

EXPLANATION OF MARKINGS THE INDEX OR KEY, directs the reader to the first verse in the Old Testament and the New Testament on a subject, and, at the close of the first verse on that subject, there is a reference to the next verse on the same subject; so, that (though it may be fifty or one hundred pages away), the reader turns forward rapidly verse to verse, in regular order, until he reads everything in the whole Bible on that subject. This same method is followed in the eighteen subjects, which complete the whole theme of Precious Promises.

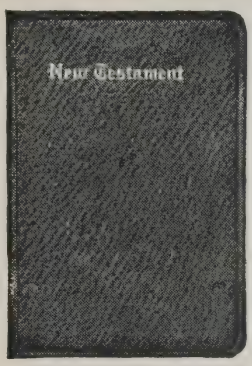
ANOTHER "INTERNATIONAL" ACHIEVEMENT

The New Bold Face Type Testament

WITH EXPLANATORY NOTES AND COMPLETE INDEX



Size, 4 x 6 inches

The specimen of type reproduced here shows the Bold Face type from which this Testament is printed. This type is large, clear, and restful to the eye—making this the easiest-reading Testament to be found anywhere. It also shows the foot-notes (printed right on the pages with the corresponding text) and the interpolated explanations which divide the gospel into logical, coherent sections without disturbing the old, but arbitrary, division into chapters and verses. These foot-notes and interpolations clear up obscure points in the text without the inconvenience and time-consuming task of referring to a commentary. Through the employment of this very latest developement of modern Bible-making, this Self-Interpreting Testament takes its place as the most understandable New Testament yet published.

A COPYRIGHTED INDEX FOR FINDING ANY WORD IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

A special feature of this Testament is the complete index by which any verse in the New Testament may be found by looking alphabetically for any important word contained in that verse. It is a combination concordance and subject index, and makes this edition of the New Testament of particular value to all who want to obtain the fullest value from the Scriptures.

Printed on the famous "thin Bible paper" used in many of the "International" Bibles, this Testament is only 4 x 6 inches in size.

Christian Worker's Testament

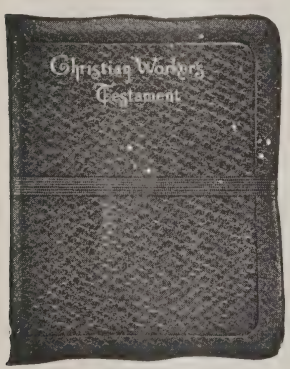
THE TESTAMENT MADE EASY TO READ

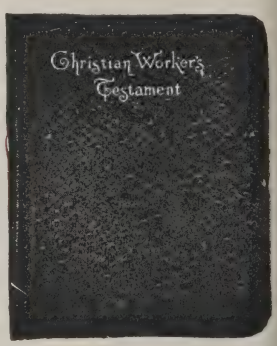
In the plan of this Testament Salvation is recognized as the dominant theme in the New Testament. Undoubtedly the greatest benefit in the reading of the Testament comes to the one who searches the Scriptures for himself and finds this stream of salvation running through its pages. But it is evident that the majority of people, even Bible readers and Bible-lovers have neither the time for such deep study nor the peculiar ability which it requires. People in general who would best understand their Bibles must depend upon those who have made a special study of these subjects and must receive the result of their labors. We cannot all be close students, but we can all be diligent readers of the Word of God.

Helpful to Every Class of Scripture Readers

Many methods have been devised for guiding Bible readers and of helping them to become Bible students, but the most ingenious and most helpful of these methods is that presented in this edition of the Testament.

Every class of Scripture students will find enjoyment and benefit in this system of marking. Ministers can use it to advantage. It will enable Lay Workers to interest and impress a company of listeners. The Sunday School Teacher will find it helpful. To the Y. M. C. A. Worker this is a marked Testament of which the key always hangs at the door. If anyone is inquiring the way of salvation what better plan can be suggested than to put this volume in his hands with the recommendation to read from it the texts on that topic which he most needs for his guidance.





In Handsome and Convenient Form

The Christian Worker's Testament is carefully printed from new type-set plates in red and black inks on extra quality of bright, rag Bible paper and is issued in a convenient size 3¾ x 4 inches.

For specimen of type and explanation of markings and exact size of Testament, see the following page.

EXPLANATION

This Testament is marked in red on every subject connected with the theme of Salvation.

A reference to the first verse on each subject is printed after the subject in this index (see above). After every verse or passage marked in this Testament there is a reference to the next verse or passage on the same subject. This will enable any one to give a Bible reading, at a moment's notice, on any subject marked in the Testament.

The capital letters used in this index, and on the margin of verses, and in front of the references, are to indicate the subjects; thus F stands for Faith, R for Repentance, etc., (see above).

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:
26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?
27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.
28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.
29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.
A 30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. A. Mark 9. 40.
L 31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. L. 18. 11-13.
H 32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. H. ver. 41, 42.
33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.
C T 34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. T. Mark 5. 19.
35 A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things. C. 13. 14. 15.
J 36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. J. ver. 41.
37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.
38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.
39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:
40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
J H R N 41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. J. 26. 21-23; H. 18. 30; R. 19. 14.

The International Note Book

Size of page, 5½ x 8½ inches

This book was prepared originally for pastors, but evangelists, teachers, and others have found it a most useful book for recording notes, sermons, essays, and Scriptural references of all kinds.

IN APPEARANCE the book looks like a Divinity Circuit Bible, and therefore does not make the carrying of sermons or notes as conspicuous as would any other form of book. It has no printed matter inside and has no lettering on the outside cover. Pastors can use the book to record their sermons, and will find it more satisfactory to lay the book open before them when delivering their sermons than the use of loose memorandum sheets, and by using the book for this purpose it also preserves their sermons and notes in substantial form.

HOW THE BOOK IS MADE The book contains over 500 pages ruled with horizontal faint blue lines, thereby making it equally suitable to those who like to write on lines and those who prefer a page without lines.

BINDING. The book is bound in French Seal, Divinity Circuit style, round corners, red under gold edges, and has silk marker.

Books for Thinking People

THE WOMANS PRESS

THE WOMANS PRESS is the lineal descendant of the publication department of the National Board of the Young Womens Christian Associations founded in 1906.

The swift expansion of Association work in war-time had its inevitable influence upon the publication department. In January, 1918, the name and device of THE WOMANS PRESS were formally assumed, while at the same time the national Association magazine, The Association Monthly, began its twelfth volume in a new and enlarged form. In order to allow for greater expansion in the realm of women's interests our magazine The Association Monthly has been changed to THE WOMANS PRESS. With this title as a guide we feel that we shall be able to reach the interest not only of Association members but also of all other women concerned with Christian progress.

THE WOMANS PRESS, while organized and staffed entirely by women, does not confine itself to the use of women writers. Its primary concern is that women shall think, particularly on the pressing current issues of economics, industry, social problems, and religious education, and to this end it desires to use all forms of expression, from texts to fiction. It believes that in the development of publishing in America there is a place for the young Womens Christian Association to make a strong contribution from the angle of the Christian Woman Movement.

Many a time I have stood before a stall, or a bookseller's window torn by intellectual desire and bodily need. At the very hour of dinner, when my stomach clamoured for food, I have been stopped by the sight of a volume so long coveted and marked at so advantageous a price that I could not let it go.

ALL NIGHT WITH THE STARS

By Louise Brown. Paper, 30 cents.

To most of us a night is simply a night—but Louise Brown in her informal lessons makes of it a time of friendly constellations. BIBLE AS A COMMUNITY BOOK, THE

By Arthur E. Holt. Paper, 75 cents. Cloth, $1.00.

How people have learned to live together from the earliest nomadic times of the Hebrew tribes to the present Christian era is the theme of this book. The author divides his history into nine parts—each part showing how the Hebrews developed—from clan brotherhood to nationalization, to commercial and legal government and finally to the universal Christian community. This is an excellent text for classes of students who are not aware of the connection between the actual living conditions of today and those of Biblical times.

CANTICLE OF THE YEAR

Compiled by Elvira J. Slack. Cloth, $1.25.

"A very charming birthday book for girls is "A Canticle of the Year" compiled by Elvira J. Slack. If it were not for its subtitle it would be just as acceptable for young men. Each day of the year has a fine selection in prose or verse leaving room on each page for autographs. The most pleasing feature of the book is its intense modernness; the extracts are from the writers that are most talked about now, and inspiring extracts they are. Another admirable feature is a little essay at the close of the book introducing the reader to the authors quoted from. The book is really a beguiling introduction to the best in present-day literature."

From "The Christian Endeavor World"

CHEERO

By Annie Marion MacLean. Cloth, $1.00.

Irvin S. Cobb may have had a wonderful time "speaking of operations," but his difficulties are as nothing compared to the halting gait of the rheumatic from hospital to hospital, from doctor to doctor, from wheel chair to bed. Read about her "treatments" and be free from pain.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP FOR GIRLS

By Helen Thoburn. Paper, 35 cents. Cloth, 55 cents.

Ten chapters on a girl's relationship to home, work, worship, recreation, friends. For individual reading or for group discussion among younger girls. CHRISTMAS SHRINE, THE

By Winifred Kirkland. Paper-covered boards, 75 cents.

Christmas is the day of supreme love in the home—it is then, more than at any other time, that our homes express the peace and beauty of the Holy Family. During the past years of turmoil, men with the vision of Christmas peace have fought for the security of the homes of the world, and now women must make this vision true. Women the makers of peace can create homes of peace—physical, mental and spiritual peace—homes that will make the coming men and women eager not to fight for the peace which, when it comes, is the peace of utter exhaustion, but to bestow on the troubled world the peace of Christ.

"It is a plea, in twelve chapters, for what is positive, constructive, fortifying and high-hearted, as opposed to what is negative, destructive, enfeebling, and low-spirited. By Raymond Calkins. 16mo. Paper, $1.00. Cloth, $1.50:

"In these days when a thousand vagaries of Biblical interpretation are afloat, it is refreshing to get hold of a book which deals reasonably with the most important themes that agitate the human mind. Of all the books on Revelation, this is on the whole one of the most satisfactory. The author is strong in his denial of the belief that Jesus is coming in physical form to usher in a millennial reign, by violence. The message of the Book of Revelation was a message for its own day and generation and refers only in a general way to these remote times."

A WOMAN'S POINT OF VIEW: Some Roads to Peace.

By Harriot Stanton Blatch. Cloth, $1.00.

"The frank statement of the author's impressions of Europe after the war makes the early pages of this book interesting. She went with optimistic ideas of reconstructing, but gave them up when she found that she had to learn what the war has done to people in general. That is something that has to be studied out in the United States as well; the extravagance, the disinclination to work, the remains of militarism."

From "The Evening Post."

CONCERNING COLOPHONS

A COLOPHON is the trade mark of a publishing house—its bookplate of ownership, as it were.

The colophon of THE WOMANS PRESS is the sacred chalice, radiating light against the background of a book. The symbolism of this device is not far to seek. According to the old legend, the Holy Grail was said to have lost its effulgence and to have vanished from sight if it was ever approached by a person not perfectly pure and holy.

THE WOMANS PRESS would try every book it issues in the testing light of the Holy Grail. If the radiance of the sacred vessel is undimmed, the book has stood the proof and is worthy to stand in its penetrating light.

It used to be the custom among early printer-publishers to omit all mention of their names and the place and time of printing from their books. As title pages were also unknown in the cradle days of printing, a book often appeared quite ownerless. Some of our oldest books have come down to us without author, title, publisher, home, or date.

This self-effacement on the part of authors is today occasional; on the part of publishers it is unknown.

When printers first began to sign their books they did so in a colophon placed at the back of the book. It was thus that the expression arose "to put the colophon," meaning "to give the finishing stroke." This saying dates back to the days of ancient Greece, when the cavalry of the city of Colophon were said to have been such splendid fighting men that they turned the tide of every battle in their favor and decided every victory.

The colophon that THE WOMANS PRESS puts upon its books is "a finishing stroke" that removes any doubt or question. It is not only a claim of ownership, it is a claim of excellence as well. It is the device that marks the book as point-device.

There is no one so grateful as the man to whom you have given just the book his soul needed and he never knew it.

—CHRISTOPHER MORLEY: The Haunted Bookshop

ANNOUNCEMENTS

New and Forthcoming Publications

Miss A. Maude Royden's Convention Addresses

Miss Royden is supremely interested in the opportunity for woman in the changing order in these after the war days when the old generation and the new generation are critical, one of the other. The power of her message is based on her conviction that woman, whose experience has taught her to look on the world as a home, God as Father, men as brothers, can make love triumphant in the world's affairs. Miss Royden writes as beautifully as she speaks. The fact that she is to lecture in many parts of this country next year adds interest to this book based on her addresses given at the National Convention of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Fundamentals by Alexander Purdy

A new book on "Fundamentals of Christianity" written by one of the younger generation of ministers who has worked with students here and abroad, knows what the new generation is thinking and can tell youth what it wants to know about the truths of Christianity. He makes Christianity desirable and possible to anyone by taking examples of its force directly from the Bible in which he says there are descriptions and life histories of more kinds of people than there are in any other literature in the world. He does not take it for granted that all people are Christians—he proves to them why they should be Christians instead of followers of any other belief.

Lenten Meditations by Dr. Lyman Abbott

Books for Lenten meditations and study are always in demand. The spiritual quality of Lyman Abbott's writings needs no description. This little volume is useful for all Bible classes or study groups desiring special material for the Lenten season.

BOOKS OF THE MONTH

Used profitably by book-sellers everywhere

NORTH

"The fact that we have a mailing list of about 1000 book readers to whom we send a copy each month is a pretty good indication of our estimation of BOOKS OF THE MONTH." Burrows Bros. Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

EAST

"We desire to express our appreciation of your excellent service, and for the benefits we have received from the distribution of your circular. We are highly pleased with results which we have obtained through this medium." Scrantom's, Inc., Rochester, N. Y.

SOUTH

"We find that the distribution of BOOKS OF THE MONTH has increased the sale of books with us from year to year, and we do not know of any way of presenting this information to our customers as cheaply or completely as using your method." J. P. Bell Co., Lynchburg, Va.

WEST

"For several years we have been subscribers to your excellent little bulletin, and are able to trace many orders directly through its distribution. We most heartily wish that for the other departments of our business we had some such little effective pamphlet as BOOKS OF THE MONTH." J. K. Gill Co., Portland, Oregon.

Samples and terms sent on application. It costs little but draws much.
